

STEVE MADDEN

2025 ANNUAL REPORT

DEAR SHAREHOLDERS,

2025 was a year that tested our business — and demonstrated its resilience.

The operating environment shifted rapidly as new tariffs on goods imported into the United States created significant disruption across our supply chain and wholesale channels. These dynamics pressured our financial performance and made for a challenging year. At the same time, they reinforced the strengths that have defined Steve Madden for decades: our ability to move quickly, adapt to change, and maintain an unwavering focus on the consumer and on delivering compelling product.

For the full year, revenue increased 11% to $2.5 billion, reflecting the addition of Kurt Geiger, while earnings declined compared to 2024 as we navigated higher costs and operational disruption. Despite these near-term pressures, we made meaningful progress strengthening our brands and positioning the Company for long-term growth.

BUILDING MOMENTUM IN THE STEVE MADDEN BRAND

In our flagship brand Steve Madden, our design teams delivered compelling, trend-right assortments that drove a significant acceleration in demand in the back half of the year, particularly in our core category of women's footwear.

We supported these assortments with enhanced marketing, including richer brand and product storytelling and a more integrated, full-funnel approach. These efforts drove measurable gains in brand heat and consumer engagement as the year progressed — momentum that has continued into early 2026.

ADDING A POWERFUL NEW GROWTH ENGINE: KURT GEIGER

In May 2025, we completed the acquisition of Kurt Geiger, adding a brand with a unique image, distinctive design aesthetic, and compelling value proposition.

Kurt Geiger London's differentiated and elevated positioning — and its alignment with our strategic priorities of expanding in international markets, accessories categories, and direct-to-consumer channels — make it a highly attractive and complementary addition.

The brand continues to have strong momentum, and we are excited about the opportunities ahead and confident that the acquisition meaningfully enhances our long-term growth profile.

STRENGTHENING OUR OTHER BRANDS

We also made meaningful progress across our other owned brands. Dolce Vita continued to build on its strong growth trajectory, expanding in adjacent categories such as handbags and gaining traction in international markets.

At Betsey Johnson, we drove renewed cultural relevance through elevated talent partnerships, authentic community engagement, high-impact activations, and differentiated product assortments.

NAVIGATING A CHALLENGING OPERATING ENVIRONMENT

The most significant headwind we faced in 2025 was the impact of new tariffs, which created meaningful disruption throughout the year. Our team responded quickly and decisively — diversifying sourcing, adjusting pricing where appropriate, managing inventory carefully, controlling costs, and maintaining strong relationships with our suppliers and customers. While these actions helped mitigate the impact, tariffs placed significant pressure on both revenue and profitability.

Despite these challenges, we believe the actions we took in 2025 have strengthened our operating model and increased our agility, positioning us well for the future.

LOOKING AHEAD

As we enter 2026, we are encouraged by the momentum in our business. Our product assortments and marketing campaigns are resonating with consumers, our brands are powerful and gaining relevance, and our strategy provides multiple levers for growth.

We expect strong growth in our three lead brands — Steve Madden, Kurt Geiger London, and Dolce Vita — while acknowledging ongoing pressure in our private label business as well as continued uncertainty related to tariffs and the conflict in the Middle East.

Looking further ahead, we believe the combination of our powerful brands, proven business model, and sound strategy positions us to drive sustainable growth and long-term value creation.

Thank you to our employees for their resilience and dedication during a challenging year, to our customers for their continued loyalty, and to you — our shareholders — for your ongoing support.

Sincerely,

Edward Rosenfeld

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT UNDER THE U.S. PRIVATE SECURITIES LITIGATION REFORM ACT OF 1995

This Annual Report on Form 10-K contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements regarding revenue and earnings guidance, plans, strategies, objectives, expectations, and intentions. You can identify forward-looking statements by words such as: “may,” “will,” “expect,” “believe,” “should,” “anticipate,” “project,” “predict,” “plan,” “intend,” or “estimate,” and similar expressions, or the negative of these expressions. Forward-looking statements are neither historical facts nor assurances of future performance. Instead, they represent our current beliefs, expectations, and assumptions regarding anticipated events and trends affecting our business, and industry based on information available as of the time such statements are made. We caution investors that such forward-looking statements are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties, many of which cannot be predicted with accuracy, and some of which may be outside of our control. Our actual results and financial condition may differ materially from those indicated in these forward-looking statements. As such, investors should not rely upon them. Important risk factors include:

- our ability to accurately anticipate fashion trends and promptly respond to consumer demand;
- our ability to compete effectively in a highly competitive market;
- our ability to adapt to our business model to rapid changes in the retail industry;
- our dependence on the hiring and retention of key personnel;
- our ability to successfully implement growth strategies and integrate acquired businesses;
- changes in trade policies, additional tariffs on product imported to the United States, retaliatory trade actions taken by other countries, and resulting trade wars;
- supply chain disruptions to product delivery systems and logistics, and our ability to properly manage inventory;
- geopolitical tensions in the regions in which we operate and any related challenging macroeconomic conditions globally that may materially adversely affect our customers, vendors, and partners, and the duration and extent to which these factors may impact our future business and operations, results of operations, and financial condition;
- our reliance on independent manufacturers to produce and deliver products in a timely manner or to meet our quality standards if we experience a supply chain disruption and we are unable to secure an alternative source of raw materials or end products;
- our dependence on one or more of our significant customers;
- quarterly fluctuations of our financial results;
- extreme or unseasonable weather conditions in locations where we or our customers and suppliers are located;
- fluctuation of our stock price if our operating results are inconsistent with our forecasts or those of analysts who follow us;
- our exposure to risks related to integrating the operations, systems, processes, reporting, supply chains, and personnel of Kurt Geiger into our business;
- our exposure to risks associated with increased indebtedness used to finance the acquisition of Kurt Geiger, including related debt service requirements;
- our ability to manage risks associated with substantial goodwill and intangible assets recorded from the acquisition of Kurt Geiger, which could subsequently become impaired upon adverse changes to the business environment in which we operate;
- disruption of our information technology systems or e-commerce platforms;
- cybersecurity risks and costs of defending against, mitigating, and responding to data security threats and breaches impacting the Company;
- our ability to effectively implement artificial intelligence and data-driven technologies across our operations, and the risks that such technologies may not perform as expected, may be subject to regulatory constraints, or may increase operational, legal, or cybersecurity risks;
- litigation or other legal proceedings could divert management resources and result in costs;
- legal, regulatory, political, and economic risks that may affect our operations in international markets;
- exposure to foreign exchange rate fluctuations;
- our ability to adequately protect our trademarks and other intellectual property rights;
- changes in economic conditions;
- additional tax liabilities resulting from audits by various taxing authorities;

- changes in U.S. and foreign tax laws that could have an adverse effect on our financial results;
- the actions of our licensees and diminished brand integrity;
- failure of our manufacturers, the manufacturers used by our licensees, or our licensees themselves to use acceptable labor practices or to otherwise comply with local laws and other standards;
- our ability to maintain effective internal control over our financial reporting; and
- other risks and uncertainties indicated from time to time in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

These risks and uncertainties, along with the risk factors discussed under Item 1A. “Risk Factors” in this Annual Report on Form 10-K, should be considered in evaluating any forward-looking statements contained in this report. We do not undertake, and disclaim, any obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, including without limitation, any guidance regarding revenue or earnings, whether as a result of new information, future developments, or otherwise.

Steven Madden, Ltd. (collectively, with its subsidiaries, the “Company,” “we,” “our,” or “us,” as applicable) was incorporated in New York on July 9, 1990, completed its initial public offering in December 1993, and subsequently reincorporated under the same name in Delaware in November 1998.

We file Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Current Reports on Form 8-K, and other reports and information with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). These reports, any amendments to such reports, and our proxy statements for our stockholders' meetings are available free of charge on the "Investor Relations" section of our website, <https://www.stevemadden.com/>, as soon as reasonably practicable after such material is electronically filed with, or furnished to, the SEC. We will provide paper copies of such filings free of charge upon request. In addition, the SEC maintains an Internet site that contains reports, proxy and information statements, and other information regarding us, which is available at <http://www.sec.gov>.

We are not including the information contained on any of our platforms discussed in this report as part of, or incorporating them by reference into, this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

Steven Madden, Ltd. and its subsidiaries design, source, and market fashion-forward branded and private label footwear, accessories, and apparel. We distribute our products through the wholesale channel to department stores, mass merchants, off-price retailers, shoe chains, online retailers, national chains, specialty retailers, independent stores, and clubs throughout the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, and Mexico. Additionally, the Company operates in other international markets through its joint ventures in South Africa, the Middle East, Israel, Australia, various countries in Europe, Latin America, and certain countries in Asia, and through special distribution arrangements in various European countries, North Africa, South and Central America, and various countries within the Asia-Pacific region. We also distribute our products through our direct-to-consumer channel, which includes company-operated retail stores, third-party concessions in international markets, and e-commerce platforms, in the United States, the United Kingdom, Canada, Mexico, South Africa, the Middle East, Israel, and various countries in Europe, Latin America, and the Asia-Pacific region.

Our product offerings include a diverse range of contemporary styles, designed to establish or capitalize on market trends, complemented by core product offerings. We are recognized for our design creativity and ability to deliver trend-right products with high quality at accessible price points, efficiently and with speed-to-market.

The following is a description of our business as of December 31, 2025.

OUR SEGMENTS

Wholesale Footwear

Our Wholesale Footwear segment designs, sources, and markets our brands and sells our products, consisting of footwear, to department stores, mass merchants, off-price retailers, shoe chains, online retailers, national chains, specialty retailers, independent stores, and clubs throughout the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, and Mexico. Additionally, the Company operates in other international markets through its joint ventures in South Africa, the Middle East, Israel, Australia, various countries in Europe, Latin America, and certain countries in Asia, and through special distribution arrangements in various European countries, North Africa, South and Central America, and various countries within the Asia-Pacific region. Our Wholesale Footwear products are designed and marketed for various lifestyles and include dress shoes, boots, booties, fashion sneakers, sandals, and casual shoes. The Wholesale Footwear segment consists of the following brands: Steve Madden[®], Kurt Geiger[®], Dolce Vita[®], Betsey Johnson[®], Blondo[®], Carvela[®], and Anne Klein[®]. This segment also includes our private label footwear business. This segment represented 40.9% of total revenue during 2025.

Wholesale Accessories/Apparel

Our Wholesale Accessories/Apparel segment designs, sources, and markets our brands and sells our products, primarily consisting of handbags and apparel, to department stores, mass merchants, off-price retailers, online retailers, specialty retailers, independent stores, and clubs throughout the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, and Mexico. Additionally, the Company operates in other international markets through its joint ventures in South Africa, the Middle East, Israel, Australia, various countries in Europe, Latin America, and certain countries in Asia, and through special distribution arrangements in various European countries, North Africa, South and Central America, and various countries within the Asia-Pacific region. Our Wholesale Accessories/Apparel business consists of handbags, apparel, small leather goods, belts, soft accessories, fashion scarves, wraps, gifting, and other trend accessories. The Wholesale Accessories/Apparel segment consists of the following brands: Steve Madden[®], Kurt Geiger[®], Dolce Vita[®], Betsey Johnson[®], Carvela[®], ATM[®], and Anne Klein[®]. This segment also includes our private label handbag and accessories business. This segment represented 25.3% of total revenue during 2025.

Direct-to-Consumer

Our Direct-to-Consumer segment engages in the sale of footwear, handbags, apparel, and other trend accessories through Steve Madden, Kurt Geiger, Carvela, Dolce Vita, and ATM full-price retail stores, Steve Madden, Kurt Geiger and Carvela outlet stores, directly-operated concessions in international markets, and directly-operated e-commerce platforms. We operate retail locations in regional malls and shopping centers, as well as high streets in various cities across the United States, the United Kingdom, Canada, Mexico, South Africa, the Middle East, Israel, Europe, Latin America, and the Asia-Pacific region. Through our concessions business, we also operate footwear concessions within several luxury and premium department stores in the UK and various department stores in international markets. Our stores play an important role in our test-and-react strategy, and also serve as fulfillment and return locations for our e-commerce business. Our stores also serve as a marketing tool that allows us to strengthen global brand recognition and to showcase selected items from our full line of branded and licensed products. In addition to these testing and marketing benefits, we have also been able to leverage sales information gathered at Steve Madden retail stores and our e-commerce platforms to assist our wholesale customers in their order placement and inventory management. We believe that our retail stores and e-commerce platforms enhance overall sales and profitability and our ability to react quickly to changing consumer demands.

As of December 31, 2025, we operated 399 brick-and-mortar retail stores, including 251 Steve Madden full-price stores and 69 outlet stores, 31 Kurt Geiger London full-price stores and 17 outlet stores, 14 Carvela full-price stores and 12 outlet stores, four Dolce Vita full-price stores, and one ATM full-price store. In addition, we ended the year with 21 concessions in Taiwan, 20 concessions in South Africa, 16 concessions in Australia, two concessions in each of Portugal and China, and 72 footwear concessions within several luxury and premium department stores in the United Kingdom, totaling 133 concessions in international markets.

In addition to our brick-and-mortar stores, our Direct-to-Consumer business offers products online through our e-commerce platforms in the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, Mexico, and through our joint ventures in international markets. We operate seven branded e-commerce websites, which include: www.stevemadden.com, www.kurtgeiger.com, www.dolcevita.com, www.betseyjohnson.com, www.blondo.com, www.carvela.com, and www.atmcollection.com. This segment represented 33.4% of total revenue during 2025.

Licensing

Our Licensing segment engages in the licensing of the Steve Madden®, Kurt Geiger®, and Betsey Johnson® trademarks for use in the sale of select apparel, accessories, and home categories as well as various other non-core products. Most of our license agreements require the licensee to pay the Company a royalty based on actual revenue, a minimum royalty in the event predetermined revenue targets are not achieved and a percentage of sales for brand advertising. This segment represented 0.5% of total revenue during 2025.

Corporate

Corporate does not constitute a reportable segment and includes costs not directly attributable to the reportable operating segments. These expenses are primarily related to corporate executives, corporate finance, corporate social responsibility, legal, human resources, information technology, cybersecurity, and other shared services.

For additional information on our segments, refer to Note 18 – Operating Segment Information in the Notes to our consolidated financial statements included in this Annual Report.

OUR BRANDS

Steve Madden. We design, source, and market fashion-forward footwear, accessories, and apparel under the Steve Madden brand. The Steve Madden brand is a leader in the fashion footwear industry with permission from the customer to sell products across most footwear categories including dress shoes, boots, booties, fashion sneakers, and casuals. While the brand appeals to a wide demographic, the core target consumer is 18 to 40 years old. The Steve Madden brand is sold globally, including in the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, Mexico, Africa, the Asia-Pacific region, the Middle East, and South and Central America.

Kurt Geiger London. Kurt Geiger® is a London-based accessible luxury accessories and footwear brand, well known for its unique brand image, bold and distinctive design aesthetic and compelling value proposition. Founded in 1963, Kurt Geiger is headquartered in London, United Kingdom. In May 2025, we acquired the Kurt Geiger® trademark via our acquisition of Mercury Acquisitions Topco Limited (“MATL”), the ultimate parent company of Kurt Geiger. The Kurt Geiger® brand is sold globally, including in the United Kingdom, United States, Europe, Mexico, and the Asia-Pacific region.

Dolce Vita. Dolce Vita® is a contemporary women's brand known for its effortless style for the modern individual. Dolce Vita® is more than just shoes and handbags, it's about creating a community, supporting underrepresented voices, and responsibly building a brand that we can be proud of with every step. The Dolce Vita® brand is sold globally, including in the United States, Europe, Canada, Mexico, Israel, Australia, and Indonesia. We acquired the Dolce Vita® footwear trademark in August 2014 and in December 2021, we acquired the remaining intellectual property rights of Dolce Vita®, handbags and other accessories.

Betsey Johnson. The Betsey Johnson® brand is recognized for its unique and original designs – both pretty and punk, lots of color, and movement and modernity – that embrace girl power at any age. Betsey Johnson® footwear and accessories are designed for inclusive, punky, and fiercely independent women with a target age of 25 to 45 years old. The Betsey Johnson® brand is primarily sold in the United States, and in select international markets. We acquired the Betsey Johnson® trademark and substantially all other intellectual property of Betsey Johnson LLC in October 2010.

Carvela. Carvela® is a premium footwear and accessories brand headquartered in London, United Kingdom. Inspired by Italian heritage, the Carvela® brand captures the elegance and timeless allure of Italy. Each piece in the Carvela® collection reflects our commitment to exceptional design and lasting comfort, thoughtfully designed with All Day Long technology. In May 2025, we acquired the Carvela® trademark through our acquisition of MATL, the ultimate parent company of Carvela.

Blondo. The Blondo® brand is a 100+ year-old footwear brand recognized for its quality water-resistant leather boots, booties, casual shoes, and sneakers. The Blondo® brand is primarily sold in the United States and Canada. We acquired the intellectual property and related assets of Blondo® in January 2015.

ATM. The ATM® (Anthony Thomas Melillo) brand is an elevated basics apparel brand known for slub jersey cotton t-shirts made primarily in Peru and sold primarily in the United States. ATM was founded in 2012, and we acquired the ATM brand in November 2024.

LICENSED BRAND

Anne Klein. In January 2018, we entered into a license agreement with WHP Global to use the Anne Klein®, AK Sport®, AK Anne Klein Sport®, and Lion Head Design® (collectively "Anne Klein®") trademarks in connection with the design, marketing, and sale of footwear and accessories products. The Anne Klein® brand has a rich heritage going back over 50 years and is recognized for its dedication to timeless American classics. Anne Klein® footwear and accessories are sold in the United States, Canada, Mexico, and Israel.

PRODUCT DESIGN AND DEVELOPMENT

We have established a reputation for our creative design, marketing, and trend-right products at affordable price points. Our future success will substantially depend on our ability to continue to anticipate and react quickly to changing consumer demands. To meet this objective, we have developed what we believe is an unparalleled design team and product development process. Our design team strives to create styles that are true to our DNA, reflect current or anticipated trends, and can be manufactured in a timely and cost-effective manner. Most new products are tested in select retail stores and on our e-commerce platforms. Based on these tests, among other things, products are selected and then offered for wholesale and direct-to-consumer distribution worldwide. We believe that our design and testing processes combined with our flexible sourcing model provide our brands with a significant competitive advantage and allow us to reduce the risk of incurring significant exit costs associated with the production and distribution of less desirable designs.

MANUFACTURING AND SUPPLY CHAIN

We source each of our product lines separately based on the individual design, style, and quality specifications of our various brands and product categories. We do not own or operate any foreign manufacturing facilities; rather, we use agents and our own sourcing offices to source our products from independently owned manufacturers in China, Cambodia, Vietnam, Mexico, Brazil, India, Bangladesh, Italy, and various other countries. We have established relationships with a number of manufacturers and agents in each of these countries. We have not entered into any long-term manufacturing or supply contracts. We believe that a sufficient number of alternative sourcing options exist for the manufacture of our products.

We continually monitor the availability of the principal raw materials used in our footwear, accessories, and apparel which are currently available from a number of sources in various parts of the world. We track inventory flow on a regular basis, monitor sell-through data, and incorporate input on product demand from our customers.

The suppliers and manufacturers of our products are required to adopt our Supplier Code of Conduct 2.0, which specifies that they comply with all local laws and regulations governing human rights, working conditions, anti-corruption, restricted substances, and environmental compliance, including animal welfare and conflict minerals, before we conduct business with them. We are committed to working with manufacturers, suppliers, vendors, and agents that share our Company's goal of maintaining socially responsible and sustainable business practices.

Our products are manufactured overseas and most of our products are shipped via ocean freight carriers to our third-party distribution facilities in California and New Jersey, and via ground freight from Mexico to our third-party distribution facility in Texas. We rely to a lesser extent on air carriers for the shipping of products. Once our products arrive in the United States, we distribute them mainly from six third-party distribution centers, including four located in California, one located in New Jersey, and one located in Texas. Our products are also distributed through a Company-operated distribution center located in Canada and through our third-party distribution facilities in Mexico, Europe, the United Kingdom and through various other third-party distributions centers in international markets. By utilizing distribution facilities specializing in fulfillment for wholesale customers, retail stores and e-commerce businesses, we believe that our customers are served in a prompt and efficient manner. Suppliers of products for our businesses in the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, Mexico, and our joint ventures in South Africa, the Middle East, Israel, Australia, various countries in Europe, Latin America, and certain countries in Asia, ship directly to the respective countries and territories. Products for our international distributors are shipped to freight forwarders or consolidators primarily in China, Cambodia, Vietnam, and Mexico where each distributor arranges for subsequent shipment to their respective territory. See Item 1A. “Risk Factors” below for a discussion of the risks associated with supply chain disruptions and changes to international trade policies.

DISTRIBUTION

For the year ended December 31, 2025, our revenue was primarily generated through two distribution channels: Wholesale and Direct-to-Consumer. Wholesale accounted for approximately $1,675,852, or 66.1% of total revenue, while Direct-to-Consumer accounted for approximately $845,666, or 33.4% of total revenue. Each distribution channel is described below.

Wholesale. We distribute product within our Wholesale Footwear and Wholesale Accessories/Apparel segments through a broad network of over 2,000 retailers, including department stores, mass merchants, off-price retailers, shoe chains, online retailers, national chains, specialty retailers, independent stores, and club stores. Our wholesale distribution network spans across the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, and Mexico, as well as various international markets through our joint ventures. We also distribute our product under various distribution agreements in certain international markets. Under the terms of our distribution agreements, the distributors purchase product from us and are generally required to open a minimum number of stores each year and maintain a certain minimum level of sales in the licensed territory. The distribution agreements currently in place expire on various dates and include renewal options provided certain conditions are met.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, our top ten wholesale channel customers, in no particular order, included: Nordstrom, Macy's, Dillard's, Designer Brands, The TJX Companies, Ross Stores, Burlington Stores, Amazon, Walmart, and Target. In 2025, the Company had no customer who accounted for more than 10% of total revenue.

Direct-to-Consumer. We distribute product within our Direct-to-Consumer segment through Steve Madden, Kurt Geiger London, Carvela, Dolce Vita, and ATM full-price retail stores, Steve Madden, Kurt Geiger London, and Carvela outlet stores, directly-operated concessions in international markets, and directly-operated e-commerce platforms. We operate retail locations in regional malls, shopping centers, and high streets in various cities across the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, Mexico, South Africa, the Middle East, Israel, Latin America, and the Asia-Pacific region. We also operate concessions in South Africa, Taiwan, China, and Portugal. Through our concessions business, we also operate third-party footwear concessions within several luxury and premium department stores in the UK.

As of December 31, 2025, we operated 399 brick-and-mortar retail stores, including 251 Steve Madden full-price stores and 69 outlet stores, 31 Kurt Geiger London full-price stores and 17 outlet stores, 14 Carvela full-price stores and 12 outlet stores, four Dolce Vita full-price stores, and one ATM full-price store. Of the 399 total brick-and-mortar retail stores, 290 stores were located outside of the United States. In addition, we operated 133 concessions in international markets.

In addition to our brick-and-mortar stores, our Direct-to-Consumer business offers products online through our e-commerce platforms in the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, Mexico, and through our joint ventures in international markets. We operate seven branded e-commerce websites, which include: www.stevemadden.com, www.kurtgeiger.com, www.dolcevita.com, www.betseyjohnson.com, www.blondo.com, www.carvela.com, and www.atmcollection.com. This segment represented 33.4% of total revenue during 2025.

COMPETITION

The fashion industry is highly competitive, with numerous domestic and international companies operating in the footwear, apparel, and accessories markets. Our competitors may have greater financial, operational, and marketing resources, among other advantages, which may allow them to compete more effectively. We believe that brand strength, trend-driven styling, product quality, value proposition, speed-to-market, marketing and distribution, customer relationships, and the effective use of data, digital tools, and emerging technologies are key factors driving success in our industry. We remain committed to leveraging these elements to maintain and grow our market position. However, there is no assurance that we will be able to compete successfully against both established and emerging competitors. Increased competition, shifting consumer preferences, evolving market dynamics, and rapid technological change could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. For further discussion of related risks, see Item 1A. “Risk Factors.”

MARKETING

We employ an integrated, omnichannel approach to marketing across our brands and product categories, designed to engage consumers throughout the customer journey. Our global marketing strategy focuses on delivering consistent, relevant, and personalized brand and product messaging across channels, supporting brand awareness, customer engagement, and conversion.

Our marketing activities include brand and performance marketing and utilize a combination of organic and paid media channels, including but not limited to email, social media, influencer partnerships, print, experiential events, and public relations. These efforts include product placements, celebrity seeding, and public and media appearances by our Founder and Creative and Design Chief, Steve Madden.

We invest in marketing technology, data analytics, and talent, both in-house and through strategic relationships with external agencies, to support customer engagement and personalization efforts. We also utilize digital tools, artificial intelligence, and other emerging technologies in certain aspects of our marketing and e-commerce operations to enhance customer experience. We continue to promote our e-commerce platforms, through which customers can purchase Steve Madden®, Kurt Geiger London®, Dolce Vita®, Betsey Johnson®, Carvela®, Blondo®, and ATM® products.

MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEM (MIS) OPERATIONS

Effective and sophisticated information systems are essential to maintaining our competitive position and supporting our growth strategy. Our technology infrastructure consists of several integrated systems, as described below, designed to manage key business functions across wholesale, retail, e-commerce, and logistics.

- Enterprise Resource Planning ("ERP") System. Our ERP system is an integrated system that supports our wholesale and retail operations in the areas of finance and accounting, sourcing, purchase order management, customer order management, and inventory control. Substantially all of our North American wholesale businesses, our European business, as well as our Asia sourcing operations, are operated through this ERP system.
- Warehouse Management System ("WMS"). Our WMS is utilized by the majority of our third-party logistics providers and is fully integrated with our ERP system to streamline inventory distribution processes.
- Retail and Point-of-Sale ("POS") Systems. Our retail stores operate on various POS systems that are integrated with our retail inventory management and store replenishment system to optimize in-store operations.
- E-commerce Platform. We utilize a direct-to-consumer e-commerce platforms that supports our online sales, enabling customers to purchase products through our branded websites. This platform integrates with our ERP system and WMS to manage inventory, process sales, and coordinate fulfillment. We utilize a reputable cloud-based solution to support our growing e-commerce business and to allow us to offer an omnichannel and seamless retail experience to our customers.
- Ancillary Systems and Third-Party Services. Supporting our core systems, we utilize various specialized tools for supply chain management, product lifecycle management (PLM), assortment planning, inventory allocation, business intelligence, data warehousing, Electronic Data Interchange, credit card processing, finance, human resources, and payroll.

We are highly dependent on our information technology systems to manage all aspects of our global business, including transaction processing, inventory management, and financial reporting. Our e-commerce platforms are critical to our direct-to-consumer strategy. Given the high volume of transactions we process annually, any prolonged system instability or failure could lead to significant revenue loss. We continuously update and enhance these systems to improve functionality, efficiency, security, and integration across our business.

See "Item 1C. Cybersecurity" for discussion regarding our cybersecurity risk management and strategy, as well as our cybersecurity governance.

TRADEMARKS

Our strategy for the continued growth of our business includes expanding our presence beyond footwear, accessories, and apparel through the selective licensing of our brands. We consider our company-owned trademarks to be among our most valuable assets, and have registered many of our trademarks in the United States and 168 other countries and in numerous International Classes. From time to time, we adopt new trademarks and new logos and/or stylized versions of our trademarks in connection with the marketing of new product lines. We believe that these trademarks have significant value and are important for purposes of identifying our Company, the marketing of our products and the products of our licensees, and distinguishing them from the products of others.

Trademarks we believe to be most significant to our business include: Steve Madden®, Madden Girl®, Madden NYC®, Kurt Geiger®, Dolce Vita®, Betsey Johnson®, Carvela®, Blondo®, Almost Famous®, and ATM®. We license our Steve Madden®, Betsey Johnson®, and Kurt Geiger® trademarks for use in connection with the manufacture, marketing, and sale of select apparel, accessories, and home categories as well as various other non-core products.

In addition to the licensing of our trademarks, we in-license the trademarks of third parties for use in connection with some of our product lines. Generally, these licensing arrangements require us to make royalty payments equal to a percentage of our revenue or a minimum royalty as well as maintain a certain level of marketing to support the licensed trademark.

For additional information on our licensing arrangements, refer to Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Note 15 – Commitments, Contingencies, and Other in the notes to our consolidated financial statements included in this Annual Report.

HUMAN CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

As of February 1, 2026, we employed approximately 6,300 employees globally, with approximately 2,100 of these employees located in the United States and approximately 4,200 located internationally. Of these employees, approximately 4,200 work full-time and approximately 2,100 work part-time. The majority of our part-time employees work in the Direct-to-Consumer segment. None of our employees are represented by a union, and we consider our relations with our employees to be good. We have never experienced a material interruption of our operations due to a labor dispute.

Culture

Steve Madden is for the bold, expressive, and ambitious. Our guiding principles are key to our competitive edge and are embedded throughout all levels of our Company. They motivate our growth, inspire our innovation, define our culture, and set the standard for all of our actions.

- First things first. Take care of the fundamentals before anything else.
- It starts with trust. Great teams are built upon trust. We build trust through honesty, care for the greater good, and follow-through.
- Don't coast. Celebrate success, but don't rest on your laurels. Hustle and grind are what set us apart.
- Think big and small. Have your eyes on the big picture while obsessing over the details.
- The customer is our muse. Study our customers, connect with them directly, and always be open to inspiration.
- Place team ownership over personal ego. The company wins when the team has ownership. Don't let your ego control you.
- Everyone can be creative. Creativity is about more than making art. It's about seeing around corners, working within limitations, and being original.
- Progress, not perfection. Act upon good ideas quickly and always be ready to iterate.

Career Development

In the dynamic world of fashion, it is vital that we support the continuous learning and personal growth of our employees. Our talent development initiatives focus on enhancing internal programs and processes that empower our employees to excel and feel a strong sense of belonging and fulfillment in their roles. Key initiatives include our long-standing professional development relationship with the University of Arizona Global Campus, a comprehensive tuition reimbursement program, leadership and management training, and access to external conferences and workshops that focus on specific industry knowledge. Further, we offer SM Learning Sessions and Madden Mindsets, company-wide initiatives that brings together internal and external experts to share knowledge on diverse topics. These programs not only enhance skillsets, but also foster a collaborative and inclusive environment, encouraging cross-departmental interaction and networking. Furthermore, performance evaluations and constructive feedback mechanisms are integral to our strategy. By investing in employee development, we aim to create a workplace where employees are not only equipped to meet the challenges of the ever-evolving fashion industry but are also deeply engaged and committed to our long-term success.

Employee Wellness

At Steve Madden, we foster a culture of individual well-being through a broad range of wellness initiatives designed to support our employees' physical, emotional, social, environmental, and financial health. Our offerings include health fairs, financial wellness seminars, discounts and partial reimbursement for gym memberships, on-site discounted food options, and access to an employee assistance program that provides resources and tools for a variety of wellness needs. As part of these efforts, we also host in-office wellness events for employees to step away from their routines and enjoy healthy snacks, chair massages, and special wellness pop-ups. We regularly collaborate with featured vendors to enhance these programs and provide meaningful ways for employees to prioritize their overall wellness.

Charitable Giving

The Company regularly makes charitable donations, primarily through The Steve Madden Corporate Foundation (the “Foundation”), a donor-advised fund established under Fidelity Charitable and managed by Rockefeller Capital Management. The Foundation's charitable giving priorities include:

- Industry Innovation: We support equity, sustainability, and accessibility in the fashion industry. Our goal is to empower industry leaders and emerging talents to create a more equitable and sustainable future through strategic projects and collaborations that align with our commitment to progressive change.
- Community Impact: We uplift the communities surrounding our offices, stores, and supply chain. Through local partnerships and targeted donations, we address the specific needs of the areas where we operate, fostering stronger, more resilient communities.

We distributed $2,000 and $1,300 to the Foundation during 2025 and 2024, respectively, and have since launched multiple shop-to-give campaigns across our various company-operated e-commerce platforms.

Since the acquisition of Kurt Geiger in May 2025, the Company has made charitable donations totaling over $400 to its stand-alone, non-profit organization, the Kurt Geiger Kindness Foundation.

Further information on our charitable initiatives can be found on the "Sustainability" section of our website, <https://www.stevemadden.com/> and <https://www.kurtgeiger.us/kurt-geiger-kindness-foundation>.

GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS

Our business is subject to various United States federal, state, local, and foreign laws and regulations, including those related to environmental protection, health and safety, labor and employment practices, trade and customs, consumer protection, data privacy, and product safety. We may also incur liability under environmental laws and regulations for contamination at sites we currently or previously owned or operated, including contamination caused by prior owners, operators, neighboring properties, or other third parties. Additionally, we may be responsible for the off-site disposal of hazardous materials.

In addition, our global operations and supply chain subject us to evolving regulations related to international trade, tariffs, customs, duties, sustainability and environmental, social, and governance (“ESG”) matters, and the use of digital technologies and data. Regulatory requirements in these areas continue to change and may result in increased compliance costs, operational complexity, or restrictions on certain business practices.

We believe we are in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. To date, compliance requirements have not had, and are not expected to have, a material effect on our capital expenditures, cash flows, earnings, or competitive position. For further discussion of related risks, see Item 1A. “Risk Factors.”

SEASONALITY AND OTHER FACTORS

Our operating results are influenced by seasonality and other factors that create variability from quarter to quarter and season to season. For example, boot sales typically peak in the fall and winter months, while sandal sales are strongest in the spring and summer months. Additionally, our Direct-to-Consumer segment experiences heightened demand during the holiday season. Our diverse product portfolio, however, helps to mitigate the impact of seasonal fluctuations in any single product category.

Beyond seasonality, several other factors contribute to quarterly fluctuations in our operating results, including weather conditions, timing of holidays and bulk footwear shipments, market acceptance of our products, pricing, product presentation, promotional strategies, our ability to deliver on-trend styles at the right time, fluctuations in personnel needs and operational costs, inventory management, including potential write-downs for obsolescence, fluctuations in material costs and product mix across our wholesale, direct-to-consumer and licensing businesses, and external conditions, such as general macroeconomic trends, consumer confidence and competitor actions.

Additionally, the amount of revenue recognized in any period may be impacted by shifts in consumer demand or purchasing behavior. Customers may also cancel orders, modify delivery schedules, or alter product mixes with minimal notice, adding further unpredictability to our financial results.

While we actively manage these variables, there is no assurance that we will not be materially impacted by seasonal trends or other external factors. For further discussion of related risks, see Item 1A. “Risk Factors.”

BACKLOG

We had unfilled wholesale customer orders of approximately $673.53 and $609,453, as of February 3, 2026 and 2025, respectively. Our backlog at any given time is influenced by factors, including seasonality, supply chain lead times, timing of market weeks, and wholesale customer purchases of core products through our open stock program. Due to these variables, period-to-period comparisons of backlog may not be indicative of future revenue trends.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the risks and uncertainties we describe below as well as all other information contained in this Annual Report on Form 10-K before making any investment decisions. The risks and uncertainties included here are not exhaustive. Other sections within this report discuss additional factors that could adversely affect our business. Our industry is highly competitive and constantly evolving, and we may face additional risks that are presently unknown, deemed immaterial, or unforeseen. If any of these risks and uncertainties were to materialize, our business, financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity could be materially and adversely affected.

INDUSTRY RISKS

The fashion footwear, accessories, and apparel industry is subject to rapid changes in consumer preferences. If we do not accurately anticipate fashion trends and promptly respond to consumer demand, we could lose sales, our relationships with customers could be harmed, and our brand loyalty could be diminished.

The strength of our brands and our success depends in large part, upon our ability to anticipate and promptly respond to product and fashion trends, as well as to anticipate, gauge, and react to changing consumer demands in a timely manner. There can be no assurance that our products will correspond to the changes in taste and demand or that we will be able to successfully advertise and market products that respond to trends and customer preferences. If we misjudge the market for our products, we may be faced with significant excess inventories for some products and missed opportunities as to others. In addition, misjudgments in merchandise selection could adversely affect our brand image with our customers, resulting in lower sales and increased markdown allowances for customers, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

We face intense competition from both established companies and newer entrants into the market. Our failure to compete effectively could cause our market share to decline, which could harm our reputation and have a material adverse impact on our financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

The fashion footwear, accessories, and apparel industry is highly competitive and barriers to entry are low. Our competitors include specialty companies as well as companies with diversified product lines. Market growth in the sales of fashion footwear, accessories, and apparel has encouraged the entry of many new competitors and increased competition from established companies. Many of these competitors may have significantly greater financial and other resources than we do, and there can be no assurance that we will be able to compete successfully with other fashion footwear, accessories, and apparel companies. Increased competition could result in pricing pressures, increased marketing expenditures, and loss of market share and could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

If we and the retailers that are our customers are unable to adapt to recent and anticipated changes in the retail industry, the sales of our products may decline, which could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

In recent years, the retail industry has experienced consolidation and other ownership changes. In the future, retailers in the United States and in foreign markets may further consolidate, undergo restructurings or reorganizations, or realign their affiliations, any of which could decrease the number of stores that carry our products, or increase the ownership concentration within the retail industry. Changing shopping patterns, including the rapid expansion of online retail shopping, have adversely affected customer traffic in mall and outlet centers, particularly in North America. We expect competition in the e-commerce market will continue to intensify. As a greater portion of consumer expenditures with retailers occurs online and through mobile commerce applications, our wholesale customers who fail to successfully integrate their physical retail stores, and digital channels may experience financial difficulties, including store closures, bankruptcies, or liquidations. A continuation or worsening of these trends could cause financial difficulties for one or more of our major customers, which, in turn, could substantially increase our credit risk and have a material adverse effect on our results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. We have little or no control over how our customers will respond to the challenges posed by these changes in the retail industry. Our success will be determined, in part, on our and our customers' ability to manage the impact of the rapidly changing retail environment and identify and capitalize on retail trends, including technology, e-commerce, artificial intelligence, and other process efficiencies, or advanced technologies that will better service our customers. If we and our customers fail to compete successfully, our businesses, market share, results of operations, and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.

RISKS RELATING TO OUR COMPANY

The loss of Steve Madden, our Founder and Creative and Design Chief, or members of our executive management team could have a material adverse effect on our business.

The growth and success of our Company since its inception more than a quarter century ago is attributable, to a significant degree, to the talents, skills, and efforts of our Founder and Creative and Design Chief, Steven Madden. An extended or permanent loss of the services of Mr. Madden could severely disrupt our business and have a material adverse effect on our Company. We also depend on the contributions of the members of our senior management team. Our senior executives have substantial experience and expertise in our business and industry and have made significant contributions to our growth and success. Competition for executive talent in the fashion footwear, accessories, and apparel industries is intense. While our employment agreements with Mr. Madden and our senior executives include a non-compete provision in the event of the termination of employment, the non-compete periods are of limited duration and scope and the enforceability of such non-compete provisions are subject to existing and future laws. Although we believe we have depth within our senior management team, if we were to lose the services of Mr. Madden or any of our senior executives, and especially if any of these individuals were to join a competitor or form a competing company, our business and financial performance could be seriously harmed. A loss of the skills, industry knowledge, contacts, and expertise of Mr. Madden or any of our senior executives could cause a setback to our operating plan and strategy.

If we are not successful in implementing our growth strategy or integrating acquired businesses, we may not be able to take advantage of certain market opportunities and may become less competitive.

Our business has grown organically and as a result of business acquisitions. In order to gain from our acquisitions, we must be effective in integrating the businesses acquired into our overall operations. Further, the expansion of our operations has increased and will continue to increase the demand on our managerial, operational, and administrative resources. In recent years, we have invested significant resources in, among other things, our management information systems and hiring and training of new personnel. However, in order to manage currently anticipated levels of future demand, we may be required to, among other things, expand our distribution facilities, establish relationships with new manufacturers to produce our products and continue to expand and improve our financial, management, and operating systems. We may experience difficulty integrating acquired businesses into our operations and may not achieve anticipated synergies from such integration. There can be no assurance that we will be able to manage future growth effectively and a failure to do so could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

If one or more of our significant customers were to reduce or stop purchases of our products, our sales and profits could decline.

The retailers that are our customers consist principally of department stores, mass merchants, off-price retailers, shoe chains, online retailers, national chains, specialty retailers, independent stores, and clubs. Certain of our department store customers, including some under common ownership, account for significant portions of our wholesale business. We generally enter into a number of purchase order commitments with our customers for each of our lines every season and do not enter into long-term agreements with any of our customers. Therefore, a decision by a significant customer, whether motivated by competitive conditions, financial difficulties, or otherwise, to decrease the amount of merchandise purchased from us or to change its manner of doing business could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

Our financial results are subject to quarterly fluctuations.

Our results of operations may fluctuate from quarter to quarter and are affected by a variety of factors, including:

- weather conditions;
- the timing of holidays;
- the timing of larger shipments of products;
- market acceptance of our products;
- pricing, presentation and promotional strategies of the products offered;
- fluctuations in personnel needs and operating costs;
- inventory management, including potential write-downs for obsolescence;
- the cost of materials;
- the product mix between wholesale, retail, and licensing businesses; and

- external conditions, such as health pandemics, general macroeconomic trends, consumer confidence, and competitor actions.

In addition, we expect that our sales and operating results may be significantly impacted by the opening of new retail stores, and the introduction of new products. Accordingly, the results of operations in any quarter will not necessarily be indicative of the results that may be achieved for a full fiscal year or any future quarter.

Extreme or unseasonable weather conditions in locations where we or our customers and suppliers are located could adversely affect our business.

Our corporate headquarters and principal operational locations, including retail, distribution, and warehousing facilities, may be subject to natural disasters and other severe weather, geological events, and climate-change related risks (including resource scarcity, rationing or unexpected costs from increases in fuel or raw material prices that may be caused by severe weather conditions) that could disrupt our operations. The occurrence of such natural events may result in sudden disruptions in business conditions of the local economies affected, as well as of the regional and global economies. Such disruptions may result in decreased demand for our products and disruptions in our management functions, sales channels and manufacturing and distribution networks, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. Extreme weather events and changes in weather patterns can also influence customer trends and shopping habits. Extended periods of unseasonably warm temperatures during the winter season or cool weather during the summer season may diminish demand for our seasonal merchandise. Heavy snowfall, hurricanes, or other severe weather events where our retail stores and the retail stores of our wholesale customers are located may decrease customer traffic in those stores and reduce our sales and profitability. There is growing concern that climate change may increase both the frequency and severity of extreme weather conditions and natural disasters. Any of these events could result in decreased demand for our products and disruptions in our sales channels and manufacturing and distribution networks, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

We sell products to most of our wholesale customers on credit, subject to customary trade payment terms, and their failure to pay for products shipped to them could adversely affect our financial results.

We extend credit to our wholesale customers based on an evaluation of each customer's financial condition, usually without collateral. Various retailers, including some of our customers, have experienced financial difficulties, which has increased the risk of extending credit to such retailers. Even though we seek to mitigate the risks of extending credit by factoring most of our accounts receivable and obtaining letters of credit, or credit insurance for others, if any of our customers were to experience a shortage of liquidity, the risk that the customer's outstanding payables to us not being paid could cause us to curtail business with the customer, or otherwise increase our exposure to credit risk relating to the customer's accounts payable.

Our stock price may fluctuate substantially if our operating results are inconsistent with our forecasts or those of analysts who follow us.

One of our primary business objectives is to maximize the long-term strength, growth, and profitability of our Company, rather than to achieve an earnings target in any particular fiscal quarter. We believe that this longer-term goal is in our best interests and those of our stockholders. The trading price of our common stock periodically may rise or fall based on the accuracy of forecasts of our future performance. Our actual results may differ from our forecasts as the guidance is based on assumptions and expectations that may or may not come to pass. As such, we assume no responsibility to update any of our forward-looking statements at such times or otherwise. If and when we announce actual results that differ from our forecast and guidance, the market price of our common stock could be adversely affected. Investors who rely on these forecasts in making investment decisions with respect to our common stock do so at their own risk. We take no responsibility for any losses suffered as a result of changes in the price of our common stock.

In addition, outside securities analysts may follow our financial results and issue reports that discuss our historical financial results and their predictions of our future performance. These analysts' predictions are based upon their own opinions and could be different from our own forecasts. Our stock price could decline if our results are below the estimates or expectations of these outside analysts.

Failure to successfully integrate the business and operations of Kurt Geiger could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and future growth prospects.

On May 6, 2025, we completed our acquisition of Mercury Acquisitions Topco Limited, which is the ultimate parent company of the Kurt Geiger business ("Kurt Geiger"). Kurt Geiger is a designer and retailer of branded fashion footwear, handbags, and accessories with a presence in the United Kingdom and other international markets. Kurt Geiger is subject to complex and evolving legal, regulatory, tax, privacy, labor, and compliance regimes in the United Kingdom and other jurisdictions. Any failure to comply with these requirements or changes to applicable laws could result in increased compliance costs, legal exposure, or operational disruptions.

The success of this acquisition depends on our ability to integrate Kurt Geiger effectively into our existing business operations, and we may encounter significant challenges in doing so. Integrating the operations, systems, processes, and personnel of Kurt Geiger with our own, as well as ensuring compliance with applicable laws and regulations (including Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act) in the U.S., UK, and other jurisdictions requires substantial management time and attention and may divert resources from other priorities and initiatives. The integration process involves complex operational, technological, and cultural challenges and could be more costly or time-consuming than anticipated.

There can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully integrate Kurt Geiger's operations or achieve the expected strategic, operational, or financial benefits of the acquisition on the anticipated timeline, or at all, due to unforeseen integration challenges or market conditions. Failure to do so could result in lost revenue opportunities, unexpected operating costs, diminished profitability, and impairment of goodwill or other intangible assets recognized in connection with the acquisition. In addition, unsuccessful integration could adversely affect our business, reputation, or future growth prospects.

We have incurred indebtedness in connection with our acquisition of Kurt Geiger, which could limit our operational and financial flexibility, expose us to interest rate risk, and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

In connection with the financing of our acquisition of Kurt Geiger, we entered into a senior secured credit facility effective May 6, 2025, consisting of a $300,000 term loan and a $250,000 revolving credit facility. As of December 31, 2025, we had outstanding borrowings of $240,000 under the term loan and no borrowings under the revolving credit facility. Prior to this acquisition, we had no amounts outstanding under our previous revolving credit facility and operated with a comparatively lower level of financial leverage.

Our increased debt levels require us to dedicate a portion of our cash flow to the repayment of principal and interest, which reduces funds available for working capital, capital expenditures, share repurchases, dividends, acquisitions, and other general corporate purposes. In addition, these credit facilities bear interest at variable rates that are subject to market fluctuations. An increase in interest rates would increase our interest exposure and reduce our net income and cash flow.

Our credit agreement also includes covenants that impose certain operating and financial restrictions. Failure to comply with these covenants could result in an event of default, which, if not cured or waived, could permit acceleration of the outstanding debt and enforcement of security interests in our assets. As of December 31, 2025, we were in compliance with all financial and non-financial covenants under our credit agreement.

We have recorded goodwill and identifiable intangible assets in connection with our acquisition of Kurt Geiger, which could become impaired and adversely affect our financial results.

As part of our preliminary purchase price allocation in connection with the acquisition of Kurt Geiger, we recorded over $240,000 in goodwill and identifiable intangible assets on our Consolidated Balance Sheet. Under U.S. GAAP, we are required to test goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets at least annually for impairment, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they may be impaired. Intangible assets with finite lives are amortized over their useful lives and are subject to impairment testing if there are indicators of impairment.

Adverse changes in our business, the markets in which we operate, consumer demand, foreign currency exchange rates, competitive dynamics, macroeconomic conditions, or our failure to successfully integrate or achieve anticipated financial results for Kurt Geiger could result in the carrying amount of goodwill or other intangible assets exceeding their fair value. This would require us to recognize impairment charges, which could be material and which could adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

Any of these risks could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, or future growth prospects.

FOREIGN SOURCING RISKS

Disruptions to our product delivery systems and failure to effectively manage inventory based on business trends across various distribution channels could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

Our products are manufactured overseas and most of our products are shipped via ocean freight carriers. The trend-focused nature of the fashion industry and the rapid changes in customer preferences leave us vulnerable to the risk of inventory obsolescence. Our reliance upon ocean freight transportation for the delivery of our inventory exposes us to various inherent risks, including those stemming from port congestion, port worker strikes, severe weather conditions, natural disasters, and terrorism, any of which could result in delivery delays and inefficiencies, increase our costs, and disrupt our business.

Any severe and prolonged disruption to ocean freight transportation could force us to rely on alternate and more expensive transportation methods. Efficient and timely inventory deliveries and proper inventory management are important factors in our operations. Inventory shortages can adversely affect the timing of shipments to customers and diminish sales and brand loyalty. Conversely, excess inventories can result in lower gross profit due to the increased discounts and markdowns that may be necessary to reduce high inventory levels. Severe and extended delays in the delivery of our inventory or our inability to effectively manage our inventory could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

Inflationary pressures have also contributed to higher freight costs, which negatively affected our gross margin and profitability in previous years, and may have a negative effect on our future operating results and profitability.

Our reliance on foreign manufacturers to provide materials, or produce our goods in a timely manner, or to meet our quality standards could cause problems if we experience a supply chain disruption and we are unable to secure an alternative source of raw materials or end products.

We do not own or operate any foreign manufacturing facilities and are therefore dependent upon third parties to manufacture all of our products. In 2025, 56.1% of our total purchases were manufactured in China and 24.6% in Cambodia. We also do not have long-term manufacturing or supply contracts with any of our suppliers or manufacturers for the production and supply of our raw materials and products, and we compete with other companies for raw materials and production capacity. The risks inherent in relying on foreign manufacturing include changes in the U.S. and international trade policies, work stoppages, transportation delays, public health emergencies, social unrest, changes in local economic and political conditions, and broader geopolitical instability.

We have experienced, and may in the future experience, significant disruptions in the supply of raw materials and products and may be unable to secure alternative suppliers of comparable quality at an acceptable price, or at all. In addition, if we experience a sudden increase in demand, or need to replace an existing supplier or manufacturer, we may be unable to locate additional suppliers of raw materials or additional manufacturing capacity on terms that are acceptable to us, or at all, or we may be unable to locate any supplier or manufacturer with sufficient capacity to meet our requirements or fill our orders in a timely manner. Selecting and transitioning to a new supplier is a complex process that requires evaluations of quality control, responsiveness, and service, financial stability, and ethical labor practices. Even if we successfully transition to a new supplier, we may still encounter production delays and increased costs as a result of the training and onboarding process.

Our supply of raw materials or finished products could be disrupted or delayed by health pandemics and government-imposed restrictions, such as border closures, shipment restrictions, and travel bans. Further delays could also arise if new suppliers are located farther from our core markets or other key participants in our supply chain. Our supply chain has been and may also be affected in the future by trade policy changes and tariffs imposed by the U.S. or other federal governments, which is described further below. Any delays, interruption, or increased costs in the supply of raw materials or production of our products could adversely affect our ability to meet customer demand and have a material negative effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

Changes in trade policies, tariffs, retaliatory trade actions taken by other countries, and resulting trade wars have had, and may continue to have, a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

Our operations rely on the global sourcing, manufacturing, and sale of products, and our supply chain is subject to risks inherent in international trade. These risks include changes in trade policies, increases in import duties, anti-dumping measures, quotas, safeguard measures, trade restrictions, restrictions on fund transfers, currency fluctuations, and geopolitical factors such as political instability or trade disputes. Any of these factors could disrupt our supply chain or increase our costs.

In 2025, the United States government announced the imposition of additional tariffs and reciprocal tariffs on a broad range of goods imported into the United States. In response, multiple countries implemented retaliatory tariffs and other trade actions, which prompted further increases in reciprocal tariffs by the United States. The United States accounted for approximately 66.2% of our global sales in fiscal year 2025, and a substantial portion of our products imported into the United States are sourced from China, Cambodia, Vietnam, and other countries that have been impacted, or may be impacted, by these trade actions.

The enactment of tariffs and the uncertainty surrounding their scope, duration, and applicable rates have materially increased, and may continue to materially increase our product costs and negatively impact our gross margins. Tariffs have resulted in, and may continue to result in, higher pricing for our products, reduced consumer demand, and order cancellations, which could adversely affect our sales volumes and profitability. We have taken, and continue to evaluate, actions intended to mitigate the impact of tariffs, including diversifying our sourcing footprint, negotiating with suppliers, and adjusting pricing strategies. However, there can be no assurance that these measures will be successful or that they will fully offset the effects of current or future tariffs.

Further, on February 20, 2026, the U.S. Supreme Court struck down certain tariffs imposed under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (IEEPA). Following the Supreme Court decision, the U.S. Administration announced a new 10% global tariff under Section 122 of the Trade Act of 1974, subject to certain carve outs. It is unclear at this time what impact this decision will have on our future financial results, including whether we will be able to obtain refunds of amounts previously paid for the IEEPA tariffs or any fluctuations of the level of replacement tariffs imposed or the addition of any new tariffs through other means.

Additionally, changes in laws or policies governing international trade, including increased tariffs or other restrictions on imports from countries where we manufacture products, such as China, Cambodia, and Vietnam, could adversely affect our business. For example, in recent years, the United States and China have imposed new tariffs on each other covering certain product categories, including footwear, accessories, and apparel. Given the uncertainty regarding the potential expansion, modification, or continuation of existing tariffs, as well as the possibility of additional retaliatory trade actions, the ultimate impact on our business, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition remains uncertain and could be material. We cannot predict whether, or to what extent, changes to international trade agreements or policies will occur, or whether we will be able to offset any resulting increases in costs or loss of revenue.

If our manufacturers, the manufacturers used by our licensees, or our licensees themselves fail to use acceptable labor practices or to otherwise comply with local laws and other standards, our business reputation could suffer.

Our products and our licensees' products are manufactured by numerous independent manufacturers outside of the United States. We impose, and require our licensees to impose, on these manufacturers, environmental, health and safety standards for the benefit of their labor force. In addition, we require these manufacturers to comply with applicable standards for product safety. However, we do not control our independent manufacturers, or licensing partners, or their labor, product safety, and other business practices. From time to time, our independent manufacturers may not comply with such standards or applicable local law or our licensees may not require their manufacturers to comply with such standards or applicable local law. The violation of such standards and laws by one of our independent manufacturers or by one of our licensing partners, or the divergence of a manufacturer's or a licensing partner's labor practices from those generally accepted as ethical in the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe and any other country where we operate, could harm our reputation, result in product recalls or require us to curtail our relationship with and locate a replacement for such manufacturer or licensee. We could also be the focus of adverse publicity and our reputation could be damaged. Any of these events could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

GLOBAL BUSINESS RISKS

Geopolitical tensions in the regions in which we operate and any related challenging macroeconomic conditions globally may materially and adversely affect our customers, vendors, and partners, and the duration and extent to which these factors may impact our future business and operations, results of operations, and financial condition remains uncertain.

The Hamas-Israel and Russia-Ukraine conflicts, or other areas of geopolitical tension around the world, or any worsening or spread of those conflicts or geopolitical tensions, and any related challenging macroeconomic conditions globally, could decrease the spending of our existing and potential new customers, adversely affect demand for our products, cause one or more of our customers, vendors, or partners to file for bankruptcy protection or go out of business, disrupt supply chains on which we rely, impact expected spending and pricing levels from existing and potential new customers, and negatively impact collections of accounts receivable, all of which could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Any of the negative impacts of the Hamas-Israel and Russia-Ukraine conflicts, other areas of geopolitical tension around the world, or any worsening of those conflicts or geopolitical tensions, and any related challenging macroeconomic conditions, may have a material adverse effect on our business and operations, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Any of these negative impacts, alone or in combination with others, also could exacerbate many of the other risk factors discussed in this report. The full extent to which these factors will negatively affect our business and operations, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows will depend on future developments that are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, including the scope, severity and duration of the Hamas-Israel and Russia-Ukraine conflicts, other areas of geopolitical tension around the world and any economic downturns and the actions taken by governmental authorities and other third parties in response.

Our global operations expose us to a variety of legal, regulatory, political, and economic risks that may adversely impact our results of operations in certain regions.

As a result of our international operations, we are subject to risks associated with our operations in international markets as a result of a number of factors, many of which are beyond our control. These risks include, among other things:

- the challenge of managing broadly dispersed foreign operations;
- inflationary pressures and economic changes or volatility in foreign economies;
- the burdens of complying with the laws and regulations of both United States and foreign jurisdictions;
- additional or increased customs duties, tariffs, taxes, and other charges on imports or exports;
- political corruption or instability;
- geopolitical regional conflicts, terrorist activity, political unrest, civil strife, and acts of war;
- local business practices that do not conform to United States legal or ethical guidelines;
- anti-American sentiment in foreign countries in which we operate;
- delays in receipts of our products at our distribution centers due to labor unrest, increasing security requirements, or other factors at United States or foreign ports;
- significant fluctuations in the value of the dollar against foreign currencies;
- increased difficulty in protecting our intellectual property in foreign jurisdictions;
- restrictions on the transfer of funds between the United States and foreign nations; and
- natural disasters or health epidemics in areas in which our businesses, customers, suppliers, and licensees are located.

All of these factors could disrupt our operations or limit the countries in which we sell or source our products, significantly increase the cost of operating in or obtaining materials originating from certain countries, result in decreased revenues, and materially and adversely affect our product sales, financial condition, and results of operations.

We are subject to the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, which prohibits the payment of bribes to foreign officials to assist in obtaining or retaining business. We are also subject to anti-corruption laws of the foreign countries in which we operate. Although we have implemented policies and procedures that are designed to promote compliance with such laws, our employees, contractors, and agents may take actions that violate our policies and procedures. Any such violation could result in sanctions or other penalties against us and have an adverse effect on our business, reputation, and operating results.

Our business is exposed to foreign exchange rate fluctuations.

We make most of our purchases in U.S. dollars. However, we source substantially all of our products overseas, and as such, the cost of these products may be affected by changes in the value of the relevant currencies against the U.S. dollar. Changes in currency exchange rates may also affect the relative prices at which we and our foreign competitors sell products in the same market. We use forward foreign exchange contracts to hedge material exposures to adverse changes in foreign exchange rates. However, no hedging strategy can completely insulate us from foreign exchange risk. We are also exposed to gains and losses resulting from the effect that fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates have on the reported results in our financial statements due to the translation of the operating results and financial position of our foreign subsidiaries. There can be no assurance that foreign currency fluctuations will not have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity. See Item 7A. “Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk” for additional information regarding our foreign exchange risk.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY RISKS

Disruption of our information technology systems or e-commerce platforms could have a material and adverse impact on our financial results and brand equity.

We are heavily dependent on information technology systems to manage all aspects of our global business, including transaction processing, inventory management, and financial reporting. Our e-commerce platforms are critical to our direct-to-consumer strategy. Given the high volume of transactions we process annually, any prolonged system instability or failure could lead to significant revenue loss.

We rely on a combination of in-house IT infrastructure and third-party "cloud" service providers to host and upgrade our systems. Our infrastructure remains vulnerable to damage from cyber-attacks, power outages, and integration challenges associated with business acquisitions. Any such disruption could result in:

- the loss of critical business data or intellectual property;
- unanticipated capital expenditures to remediate and harden infrastructure; or
- an inability to fulfill customer orders, leading to inventory imbalances and lost sales.

While we maintain disaster recovery protocols and cybersecurity insurance, these measures may not be adequate to cover the full extent of a catastrophic loss or business interruption.

Our business could be adversely affected by data security breaches or privacy failures involving our systems or those of our third-party partners.

As a routine part of our business, we collect and retain sensitive information, including personally identifiable information of customers and employees. Despite our security measures, we and our service providers face ongoing threats from sophisticated actors employing ransomware, social engineering, and advanced persistent threats.

As the media and regulatory scrutiny of data privacy intensifies, any actual or perceived breach could result in a material loss of consumer trust. Beyond reputational damage, a compromise of our systems could subject us to:

- substantial forensic, legal, and notification costs;
- class-action litigation and significant statutory liabilities;
- regulatory enforcement under increasingly rigorous standards, including the GDPR, CCPA/CPRA, and the NY SHIELD Act.

Our compliance with these evolving global privacy laws is costly and requires ongoing operational adjustments. While we have not experienced a material security breach in the last three years, the frequency and sophistication of global cyber-threats continue to increase.

Risks related to the deployment of artificial intelligence and machine learning could adversely impact our operations and financial condition.

We are increasingly integrating artificial intelligence ("AI") and machine learning across our enterprise, including for inventory forecasting, digital marketing, and pricing optimization. While these technologies are intended to drive efficiency, they introduce unique risks:

- Data Integrity: AI outputs are only as reliable as the underlying data. Inaccurate or biased data sets could lead to suboptimal business decisions, such as inventory stockouts or inaccurate demand forecasting, materially impacting our gross margins.
- Third-Party Dependency: We rely on external AI platforms and tools. Security vulnerability or service interruption at these providers could compromise our operational continuity.
- Regulatory Uncertainty: The global regulatory landscape for AI is rapidly evolving. New transparency or "explainability" requirements may necessitate significant diversion of resources or restrictions on our current use of these technologies.
- Competitive Pressure: Failure to effectively integrate AI at the same pace as our competitors could result in a loss of market share and diminished operational responsiveness.

There can be no assurance that our investment in AI will yield the expected returns on investment. Given the rapid pace of technological change, the impact of these risks on our cash flows and results of operations is uncertain and could be material.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RISKS

Failure to adequately protect our trademarks and intellectual property rights, to prevent counterfeiting of our products, or to defend claims against us related to our trademarks and intellectual property rights could reduce sales and adversely affect the value of our brands.

We believe that our trademarks and other proprietary rights are of major significance to our success and our competitive position, and we consider some of our trademarks, such as Steve Madden, to be integral to our business and among our most valuable assets. Accordingly, we devote substantial resources to the establishment and protection of our trademarks on a worldwide basis. Nevertheless, policing unauthorized use of our intellectual property is difficult, expensive, and time consuming. There can be no assurance that the actions we take to establish and protect our trademarks and other proprietary rights will be adequate to prevent imitation of our products by others and to prevent others from seeking to block sales of our products on the basis that our products violate the trademarks or other proprietary rights of others. Moreover, no assurance can be given that others will not assert rights in, or ownership of, trademarks and other proprietary rights of ours or that we will be able to successfully resolve such conflicts. We could incur substantial costs in legal actions relating to our use of intellectual property or the use of our intellectual property by others. In addition, the laws of certain foreign countries may not protect proprietary rights to the same extent as do the laws of the United States. Our failure to establish and protect such proprietary rights from unlawful and improper use could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

A portion of our revenue is dependent on licensing our trademarks. The actions of our licensees could diminish our brand integrity and adversely affect our revenue and results of operations.

We license to others the rights to produce and market certain products that are sold under our trademarks. Although we retain significant control over our licensees' products and advertising, our licensees have operational and financial control over their businesses. If the quality, image, or distribution of our licensed products diminish, customer acceptance of and demand for our brands and products could decline. This could materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations. A decrease in customer demand for any of these product lines could have an adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition. Furthermore, if we are unable to engage an adequate replacement for a terminated licensee or to engage such a replacement for an extended period, our revenues and results of operations could be adversely affected.

GENERAL RISK FACTORS

Changes in economic conditions may adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

Our opportunities for long-term growth and profitability are accompanied by significant challenges and risks, particularly in the near term. Specifically, our business is dependent on consumer demand for our products and the purchase of our products by consumers is largely discretionary. Consumer confidence and discretionary spending has been and in the future could be adversely affected in response to financial market volatility, negative financial news, inflationary pressures, changes in interest rates, changing conditions within the real estate and mortgage markets, declines in income or asset values, and other economic factors. A downturn in macroeconomic conditions leading to a reduction in consumer confidence and discretionary spending could have an adverse impact on our financial condition, results of operations, and liquidity.

Litigation or other legal proceedings could divert management resources and result in costs that adversely affect our operating results from quarter to quarter.

From time to time, we are involved in various claims, lawsuits, regulatory proceedings, and governmental investigations that arise in the ordinary course of business. Due to the inherent uncertainty of legal proceedings, we cannot predict the ultimate outcome of any such matters with accuracy. An unfavorable outcome in one or more of these proceedings could have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition, and results of operations, and the insurance coverage we maintain may be insufficient to fully cover any resulting losses or liabilities. In addition, any significant litigation, investigations, or regulatory proceedings – even without merit – could divert management attention and financial resources away from core business operations, potentially affecting our ability to execute strategic initiatives. These matters could also result in reputational harm, regulatory penalties, or compliance costs, further impacting our financial performance. For additional information regarding legal proceedings in which we are involved, see Item 3. “Legal Proceedings.”

We may be subject to additional tax liabilities as a result of audits by various taxing authorities.

We are subject to complex and evolving tax laws and regulations across multiple jurisdictions as a result of our global presence and international operations. Significant judgment and specialized expertise are required to evaluate and estimate our worldwide provision for income taxes. We are regularly subject to tax audits and examinations by authorities in the jurisdictions where we operate, and any of these jurisdictions could assess additional taxes, penalties, or interest as a result of an audit. The final determination of any audit, or related litigation, may differ from our estimates, historical tax provisions, or accruals. The outcome of any audit or related litigation could have a material adverse effect on our operating results or cash flows in the affected periods and may require us to restate prior financial reports. In addition, future earnings may be adversely impacted by litigation costs, settlement payments, or penalties and interest resulting from adverse tax assessments.

Changes in tax laws could have an adverse effect on our financial results.

We are subject to income taxation in multiple jurisdictions within the United States and abroad, where tax laws and regulations are complex, frequently evolving, and subject to varying interpretations. Changes in legislation, tax rates, enforcement practices, or judicial rulings in these jurisdictions could increase our tax liabilities and adversely affect our after-tax profitability. Adjustments to the incremental provisional tax expense may be required in future periods due to various factors, such as changes in the interpretation of the United States tax code or related tax accounting guidance, revisions to assumptions used in tax estimates, new regulatory guidance issued regarding U.S. tax law revisions, and state and local tax implications that differ from initial expectations.

Additionally, foreign tax authorities may introduce new tax laws, adjust existing regulations, or adopt unpredictable enforcement measures, which could further impact our tax liabilities. Increases in applicable tax rates, the implementation of new taxes, and changes in applicable tax laws or their interpretation in jurisdictions where we operate could reduce our after-tax income and have an adverse effect on our results of operations.

Any failure to maintain effective internal control over our financial reporting could materially and adversely affect us.

Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 requires us to include in our Annual Report on Form 10-K an assessment by management of the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting. Compliance with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 requires ongoing evaluation and testing of our financial systems and processes to allow both management and our independent registered public accounting firm to report on the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting. Maintaining compliance may require substantial costs and significant management effort.

In 2025, we completed the acquisition of Kurt Geiger. As permitted under applicable SEC and Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (“PCAOB”) guidance, the internal control over financial reporting of newly acquired businesses may be excluded from management’s assessment of internal control over financial reporting for a period of up to one year following the acquisition date. During this integration period, we are dedicating resources to integrating Kurt Geiger’s financial reporting systems, processes, and internal controls into our internal control framework. However, until such integration is complete and the acquired business is fully subject to our internal control environment, we may face additional risks associated with integrating and maintaining effective internal controls over financial reporting.

If we fail to maintain effective internal controls, our auditors may determine that a significant deficiency or material weakness exists in our internal controls over financial reporting. Such a determination could undermine investor confidence in the reliability of our financial statements, require us to restate our quarterly or annual financial statements, or negatively impact the market price of our common stock.

ITEM 1C. CYBERSECURITY

Risk Management and Strategy

The Company employs a comprehensive, cross-departmental approach to continuously assess, identify, and manage potential cybersecurity risks, with direct involvement from the Board of Directors, primarily through the Audit Committee of the Board, and senior management. Collaboration is required between our employees, the information technology (“IT”) security team, which is led by our Chief Information Security Officer (“CISO”), the Information Security Steering Committee (“ISSC”), which is chaired by our CISO and comprised of executive and senior representatives from key corporate functions and is overseen by the Board of Directors, and the Core Cyber Incident Response Team (“CIRT”), which is led by our CISO and includes members from ISSC and our technology teams. The Company’s cybersecurity policies, standards, processes, and practices are integrated into the Company’s overall risk management program and we regularly consider cybersecurity risks in the context of material risks to the Company. Our cybersecurity risk management program categorizes cybersecurity risks into five areas: identify, protect, detect, respond, and recover. We regularly assess the cybersecurity threat landscape, employing a layered cybersecurity strategy that emphasizes prevention, detection, and mitigation through a variety of technical and operational measures. As a part of our cybersecurity risk management program, our information security program is tailored to address identified risks, while aligning with pertinent business requirements.

We foster a shared responsibility for the Company’s cybersecurity with all of our employees, conducting periodic phishing simulation campaigns and providing regular, mandatory cybersecurity training to enhance awareness and readiness against potential cyber threats. As part of the Company’s information security program, all global employees are required to complete annual training on information security awareness, including cybersecurity, global data privacy requirements, and information technology compliance measures. Certain roles require additional role-based, specialized cybersecurity training to ensure proactive preparation and effective coordination in the event of a security incident. We engage a third-party to conduct annual tabletop exercises to members of our ISSR and CIRT units. During this exercise, we rehearse our incident response plan, as well as identify and prioritize opportunities for improvement within our cybersecurity program and associated security controls, through a customized simulation specifically tailored to our current environment, processes, and procedures. Furthermore, job function-specific training and testing exercises are delivered by an external partner and aligned with specific job responsibilities. For example, IT personnel receive additional training related to privileged access, while finance personnel receive targeted training and random testing designed to mitigate risks related to phishing, deepfake, and business email compromise.

To protect our data and information systems, we maintain Company-wide cybersecurity policies and procedures regarding encryption standards, antivirus protection, remote access, multifactor authentication, confidential information, and internet, social media, email, and wireless device usage. Our IT security team reviews and updates such policies and procedures to adapt to evolving cybersecurity landscapes, industry best practices, and regulatory and statutory updates. Our CISO conducts thorough reviews of these updates to ensure their continued relevance and effectiveness in safeguarding the Company’s assets and business interests. Key members of our leadership team and our technology teams undergo annual cyber incident tabletop exercises.

As part of our broader cybersecurity risk management framework, the Company maintains compliance with PCI DSS standards. This program governs the security of our payment processing environment, ensuring that credit card data is handled through encrypted channels and segmented networks to mitigate the risk of unauthorized access or data exfiltration.

We continually seek to update our IT security, encompassing end-user training, layered defenses, critical asset identification and protection, enhanced monitoring and alerting, and engagement with third-party experts to evaluate the efficacy of our security measures. We engage reputable third parties to assist in the monitoring, protection, detection, and potential remediation of cybersecurity threats and incidents. We also regularly evaluate cybersecurity risks associated with our use of third-party service providers, conducting an annual review of hosted applications and assessing their cybersecurity preparedness. Risks from cybersecurity threats, including as a result of previous cybersecurity events encountered by the Company and known events encountered by third parties with a connection to the Company, have not materially affected our Company, including our business strategy, results of operations, or financial condition. The Company did not experience a material third-party information security breach in the last three years.

Governance

Management

Our Chief Information Security Officer (CISO) is primarily responsible for evaluating and managing the Company’s significant cybersecurity risks, as well as developing and implementing the related risk management policies and procedures.

The CISO directs the Company's information security and cybersecurity risk management programs, providing quarterly status reports to both the Information Security Steering Committee (ISSC) and the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors. With more than 25 years of experience across technology, cybersecurity operations, and engineering functions, the CISO holds a bachelor's degree in computer information science, a master's degree in technology management, a CISO Certificate from Carnegie Mellon University, and maintains ISC2 CISSP certification.

Other members of the management team support our CISO in overseeing cybersecurity risk management through participation in the ISSC, which is chaired by the CISO and includes the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer & Executive Vice President of Operations, Chief Information Officer, General Counsel, President of Direct-to-Consumer and Global Digital, Privacy Counsel, and the Vice President of Internal Audit. The ISSC regularly reviews and discusses comprehensive quarterly and annual reports presented by the CISO and IT security team, facilitating informed, collaborative, and consensus-based guidance on information security for the Company.

Our Cybersecurity Incident Response Team (CIRT) operates as a dedicated frontline unit tasked with the rapid detection, assessment, and containment of potential threats. The CIRT employs a structured escalation framework to ensure material risks are identified and communicated with velocity. Upon identifying a potential threat, the CIRT conducts an immediate severity assessment. Any significant events are escalated to the ISSC to evaluate potential business, financial, or reputational impacts. In coordination with the ISSC, the CIRT ensures that the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is promptly notified of any incidents deemed to have a material impact on the Company's operations or financial condition.

Board of Directors

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has responsibility for oversight of information and cybersecurity risks and assessment of cyber threats and defenses, and it oversees management to ensure that the processes designed, implemented, and maintained with respect to such risks are functioning as intended and adapted when necessary to respond to changes in our strategy, as well as emerging risks. Given the importance of information security and cybersecurity to our stakeholders, our Audit Committee reviews quarterly reports from our CISO regarding the Company's cybersecurity strategies for mitigating known risks, any newly identified risks, existing projects, and key performance insights and engages in discussions with management based on such reports and other recent developments.

Over the past three years, we have not identified any cybersecurity threats that have materially affected, or that we believe are reasonably likely to materially affect our business strategy, results of operations, or financial condition. However, despite our best efforts, cybersecurity risks cannot be fully eliminated, and there can be no assurance that we have not experienced, or will not experience, cybersecurity incidents, including incidents that may not be immediately detected. For additional information about these risks, see Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors" in this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES

We lease space for our headquarters, retail stores, showrooms, warehouses, storage, and office facilities in various locations in the United States, as well as overseas. All of our locations are leased, with the exception of one improved real property parcel in Long Island City, New York, which we own. We believe that our existing facilities are in good operating condition and are adequate for our present level of operations. The following table sets forth the location, use, segment, and size of the Company's principal properties as of December 31, 2025.

Location	Use	Segment	Approximate Square Feet
Bloomington, CA	Warehouse	Wholesale Footwear and Wholesale Accessories/Apparel Direct-to-Consumer	525,100
Dongguan, China	Offices and sample production	Wholesale Footwear and Wholesale Accessories/Apparel	154,900
Quebec, Canada	Offices, warehouse	Wholesale Footwear and Wholesale Accessories/Apparel Direct-to-Consumer	133,300
Long Island City, NY	Executive offices and sample factory	Corporate ⁽¹⁾	111,000
New York, NY	Offices and showroom	Wholesale Accessories/Apparel	59,300
London, United Kingdom	Offices	Wholesale Footwear and Wholesale Accessories/Apparel	49,900
Cape Town, South Africa	Warehouse	Wholesale Footwear and Wholesale Accessories/Apparel Direct-to-Consumer	36,000
New York, NY	Offices and showroom	Wholesale Footwear	35,200
Nieuwkuijk, Netherlands	Offices and showroom	Wholesale Footwear and Wholesale Accessories/Apparel Direct-to-Consumer	23,800
New York, NY	Offices and showroom	Wholesale Accessories/Apparel	17,600
Bellevue, WA	Topline office	Wholesale Footwear	14,200
New York, NY	Offices and showroom	Wholesale Footwear Direct-to-Consumer	21,200
Putian City, China	Offices	Wholesale Footwear	8,700
Mexico City, Mexico	Offices	Wholesale Footwear and Wholesale Accessories/Apparel Direct-to-Consumer	8,400
Long Island City, NY	Storage	Corporate ⁽¹⁾	7,200
New York, NY	Offices and showroom	Wholesale Footwear and Wholesale Accessories/Apparel Direct-to-Consumer	6,000

In addition to the above properties, the Company occupies 399 leased full-price and outlet brick-and-mortar locations. These leases expire at various times through fiscal year 2036. Substantially all of our retail stores are leased pursuant to leases that, under their original terms, extend for an average of five years. Many of the leases contain rent escalation clauses to compensate for increases in operating costs and real estate taxes over the base year.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In the ordinary course of business, we are involved in various legal proceedings related to contractual disputes, employment matters, distribution issues, product liability claims, intellectual property infringement, and other business-related matters. After reviewing these matters with legal counsel, management believes that any potential liabilities arising from these legal proceedings are not expected to have a material impact on our financial condition, results of operations, or liquidity.

ITEM 4. MINE SAFETY DISCLOSURES

Not applicable.

PART II

ITEM 5. MARKET FOR REGISTRANT'S COMMON EQUITY, RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS AND ISSUER PURCHASES OF EQUITY SECURITIES

($ in thousands, except for holders of record, beneficial owners, and per share data)

Market Information. Since August 1, 2007, our common stock has been listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the trading symbol, “SHOO”. Prior to then, it was listed on the NASDAQ National Market.

Holders. As of February 20, 2026, there were 165 holders of record and 56,627 beneficial owners of our common stock.

Dividends. During fiscal 2025, a quarterly cash dividend of $0.21 per share on our outstanding shares of common stock was paid on each of March 21, 2025, June 20, 2025, September 23, 2025, and December 26, 2025. The aggregate cash dividend paid for the year ended December 31, 2025 was $60,962.

In February 2026, our Board of Directors approved the quarterly dividend of $0.21 per share payable on March 20, 2026 to stockholders of record as of the close of business on March 11, 2026. The payment of future dividends will be subject to the discretion of our Board of Directors and will be contingent upon future earnings, our financial condition, capital requirements, general business conditions, and other factors. Therefore, we can give no assurance that dividends of any kind will be paid to holders of our common stock in the future.

Issuer Repurchases of Equity Securities. Our Board of Directors authorized a share repurchase program (the “Share Repurchase Program”), effective as of January 1, 2004. The Share Repurchase Program does not have a fixed expiration or termination date and may be modified or terminated by the Board of Directors at any time. On several occasions the Board of Directors has increased the amount authorized for repurchase of our common stock. On November 2, 2021, the Board of Directors approved an increase in the Company's share repurchase authorization of approximately $200,000, bringing the total authorization to $250,000, which included the amount remaining under the prior authorization. The Share Repurchase Program permits us to effect repurchases from time to time through a combination of open market repurchases or in privately negotiated transactions at such prices and times as are determined to be in our best interest. In the middle of March 2020, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, as a precautionary measure the Board of Directors temporarily suspended the repurchase of our common stock, which the Board of Directors reinstated on February 24, 2021. On May 8, 2023, the Board of Directors approved an increase in the Company's share repurchase authorization of approximately $189,900, bringing the total authorization to $250,000. During the year ended December 31, 2025, we did not repurchase any shares of our common stock under the Share Repurchase Program. As of December 31, 2025, approximately $85,310 remained available for future repurchases under the Share Repurchase Program.

The following table presents the total number of shares of our common stock, $0.0001 par value, purchased by us during the three months ended December 31, 2025, which includes employee tax and/or option cost obligations applicable to stock-based compensation awards; the average price paid per share; the amount of shares purchased pursuant to our Share Repurchase Program and the approximate dollar value of the shares that still could have been purchased at the end of the fiscal period pursuant to our Share Repurchase Program. See Note 10 – Share Repurchase Program to the consolidated financial statements for further details on our share repurchase program. During the three months ended December 31, 2025, there were no sales by us of unregistered shares of common stock.

Amended and Restated 2006 Stock Incentive Plan, each provide us with the right to deduct, or withhold, or require employees to remit to us, an amount sufficient to satisfy all or part of the tax withholding obligations applicable to stock-based compensation awards. To the extent permitted, participants may elect to satisfy all or part of such withholding obligations by tendering to us previously owned shares or by having us withhold shares having a fair market value equal to the minimum statutory tax-withholding rate that could be imposed on the transaction. Included in this table are shares withheld during the fourth quarter of 2025 in connection with the settlement of vested restricted stock to satisfy the cost of options and tax-withholding requirements with an aggregate purchase price of approximately $14,714.

Performance Graph

The following graph compares the yearly percentage change in the cumulative total stockholder return on our common stock during the period beginning on December 31, 2020, and ending on December 31, 2025, with the cumulative total return on the Russell 2000 Index and a peer group index.

As of December 31, 2025, our peer group index consisted of six companies: Caleres, Inc., Crocs, Inc., Deckers Outdoor Corporation, Genesco Inc., Designer Brands Inc., and Wolverine World Wide, Inc. Skechers, U.S.A., Inc. was removed from our peer group index for all years presented as it is no longer a listed company.

The comparison assumes that $100 was invested on December 31, 2020 in our common stock and in the foregoing indices and assumes the reinvestment of dividends.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion of our financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with our audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto appearing elsewhere in this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Business Overview

($ in thousands, except for store count and per share data)

Steven Madden, Ltd. and its subsidiaries design, source, and market fashion-forward branded and private label footwear, accessories, and apparel. We distribute our products through the wholesale channel to department stores, mass merchants, off-price retailers, shoe chains, online retailers, national chains, specialty retailers, independent stores, and clubs throughout the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, and Mexico. Additionally, we operate in other international markets through our joint ventures in South Africa, the Middle East, Israel, Australia, various countries in Europe, Latin America, and certain countries in Asia, and through special distribution arrangements in various European countries, North Africa, South and Central America, and various countries within the Asia-Pacific region. We also distribute our products through our direct-to-consumer channel, which includes company-operated retail stores, third-party concessions in international markets, and e-commerce platforms, in the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, Mexico, South Africa, the Middle East, Israel, Latin America, and the Asia-Pacific region.

Our product offerings include a diverse range of contemporary styles, designed to establish or capitalize on market trends, complemented by core product offerings. We are recognized for our design creativity and ability to deliver trend-right products with high quality at accessible price points, efficiently and with speed-to-market.

The Company's reportable operating segments consist of the following:

- Wholesale Footwear. This segment designs, sources, and markets our brands and sells our products, consisting of footwear, to department stores, mass merchants, off-price retailers, shoe chains, online retailers, national chains, specialty retailers, independent stores, and clubs throughout the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, Mexico, and through our joint ventures and international distributor network.
- Wholesale Accessories/Apparel. This segment designs, sources, and markets our brands and sells our products, primarily consisting of handbags and apparel, to department stores, mass merchants, off-price retailers, online retailers, specialty retailers, independent stores, and clubs throughout the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, Mexico, and through our joint ventures and international distributor network.
- Direct-to-Consumer. This segment engages in the sale of footwear, handbags, apparel, and other accessories through Steve Madden, Kurt Geiger London, Dolce Vita, and Carvela full-price retail stores, Steve Madden, Kurt Geiger London, and Carvela outlet stores, directly-operated e-commerce platforms, directly-operated concessions in international markets, and also operates third-party concessions in luxury and premium department stores primarily in the UK. We operate retail locations in regional malls and shopping centers, as well as high streets in various cities across the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, and Mexico, as well as through our joint ventures in international markets.
- Licensing. This segment engages in the licensing of the Steve Madden®, Betsey Johnson®, and Kurt Geiger® trademarks for use in the sale of select apparel, accessories, and home categories as well as various other non-core products.

Corporate does not constitute a reportable segment and includes costs not directly attributable to the reportable operating segments. These expenses are primarily related to corporate executives, corporate finance, corporate social responsibility, legal, human resources, information technology, cybersecurity, and other shared services.

Recent Developments

Australia Joint Venture. In January 2025, the Company acquired a 50.1% controlling financial interest in the newly formed entity, SM Fashion Australia Pty Ltd. This joint venture was formed to expand the distribution of our products across Australia and New Zealand through wholesale and direct-to-consumer channels. The results of this joint venture are included within the Wholesale Footwear, Wholesale Accessories/Apparel, and Direct-to-Consumer segments.

Malaysia Joint Venture. In January 2025, the Company acquired an additional 2.0% equity interest in SM Distribution Malaysia Sdn. Bhd. SM Distribution Malaysia Sdn. Bhd was originally formed in July 2022, at which time we held a 49.0% non-controlling interest in the entity. The Company now holds a 51.0% controlling financial interest in the entity. SM Distribution Malaysia Sdn. Bhd engages in the distribution of our products across Malaysia through the direct-to-consumer channel. The results of this joint venture are included within the Direct-to-Consumer segment.

Acquisition of Kurt Geiger. In May 2025, the Company completed its previously announced acquisition of the entire issued share capital of Mercury Acquisitions Topco Limited (“MATL”) for a preliminary purchase price of $403,348.

MATL is the ultimate parent company of the Kurt Geiger business (“Kurt Geiger”), which operates primarily in the United Kingdom (the “UK”), U.S., and Europe. Kurt Geiger designs and sells footwear and accessories under its own brands – including Kurt Geiger London, KG Kurt Geiger, and Carvela – through its direct-to-consumer channel, which consists of directly-operated retail stores and e-commerce, as well as through the wholesale channel, and operates third-party concessions in luxury and premium department stores primarily in the UK. Kurt Geiger was founded in 1963 and is headquartered in London, UK.

Greater China Joint Venture. In August 2025, the Company acquired a 50% controlling financial interest in the newly formed entity, MG Distribution Hong Kong Limited. This joint venture was formed to expand the distribution of the Company’s products across China, Hong Kong, and Macau. The results of this joint venture are included within the Direct-to-Consumer segment.

For additional information about these acquisitions and joint ventures, refer to Note 4 – Acquisitions, Purchases and Sales of Joint Ventures, and Divestitures to the consolidated financial statements included in this Form 10-K.

Macroeconomic Conditions and Industry Trends

Our business operations – and the broader industry – were shaped throughout 2025 by a complex and evolving macroeconomic environment, requiring continued flexibility across our sourcing, supply chain, and go-to-market strategies.

Following the inauguration of the current administration in January 2025, new tariff measures were announced or threatened on imports from key sourcing markets, including China, Cambodia, Vietnam, and Brazil. Although some previously announced tariff initiatives were postponed or adjusted, the absence of clarity around future trade policy remained, prompting many multinational businesses, including us, to maintain flexible supplier networks, selectively adjust pricing strategies, and intensify cost-containment efforts.

While interest rates have recently come down in the United States and key international markets, they have remained high relative to prior years, continuing to impact credit conditions and consumer discretionary spending. Furthermore, continued foreign currency volatility, elevated global trade tensions, and recession fears continue to impact consumer sentiment.

Geopolitical tensions remain influential. The conflicts in the Middle East and Ukraine persist and tensions with China and other countries remain elevated. These headwinds have contributed to continued economic uncertainty, inflationary pressures, foreign currency volatility, disruptions in global supply chains, deteriorating trade relations, and declining consumer confidence. These factors contributed to broader market volatility and may continue to adversely impact our global business operations.

Structural change remains a key theme in the retail landscape. Consumers increasingly favor omnichannel and direct-to-consumer shopping experiences, placing greater emphasis on digital engagement, personalized marketing, and seamless integration between online and physical channels. This shift underscores the strategic importance of our investments in e-commerce platforms, data analytics capabilities, and customer experience enhancements. Traditional wholesale channels also evolved, with retail partners placing increased focus on inventory planning and discipline in these uncertain times.

While the macroeconomic environment is ever-evolving, we remain steadfast in our commitment to executing the following key strategic initiatives, which are aimed at driving long-term growth and creating shareholder value:

- Win with product. Utilizing our proven model – which combines talented design teams, a test-and react strategy, and industry-leading speed-to-market capability – to create trend-right product assortments across footwear, accessories, and apparel categories that resonate with our consumers.
- Invest in marketing. Continue investing in full-funnel marketing to deepen our connection with consumers.
- Expand in international markets. Expanding our international businesses in the Americas (ex. U.S.), EMEA, and APAC regions remains our largest long-term growth initiative.

- Grow non-footwear categories. Expanding our product offerings across various categories outside of footwear, including handbags, accessories, and apparel.
- Expand Direct-to-Consumer led by digital. Expanding our direct-to-consumer business with a focus on growing our digital business, including optimizing site functionality, personalization, and digital marketing, to enhance our consumers overall shopping experience.
- Strengthen the core U.S. wholesale footwear business. Continue leveraging product innovation and speed to market to grow our diversified business across all tiers of distribution.
- Operational Efficiency. Streamlining operations, tightly managing costs, and maintaining a disciplined inventory management approach are ongoing and aimed at enhancing overall profitability.
- Sustainability Focus. Committing to our corporate social responsibility initiatives, as we work to minimize the negative impacts we have on the environment and maximize the positive impacts we have on our people and our communities.

Dividends

Our Board of Directors approved a quarterly cash dividend of $0.21 per share on our outstanding shares of common stock which was paid on March 21, 2025, June 20, 2025, September 23, 2025 and December 26, 2025. The aggregate cash dividends paid for the year ended December 31, 2025 was $60,962.

On February 24, 2026, our Board of Directors approved a quarterly cash dividend of $0.21 per share payable on March 20, 2026 to stockholders of record as of the close of business on March 11, 2026.

2025 Highlights

Total revenue for 2025 was $2,534,109, an increase of 11.0% as compared to 2024 driven by the acquisition of the Kurt Geiger business. Net income attributable to Steven Madden, Ltd. was $44,661 in 2025 compared to $169,390 in 2024. Our effective tax rate for 2025 was 36.9% compared to 23.7% in 2024. Diluted earnings per share in 2025 was $0.63 per share on 71,181 diluted weighted average shares outstanding compared to $2.35 per share on 71,963 diluted weighted average shares outstanding in 2024.

As of December 31, 2025, we had 399 brick-and-mortar retail stores and seven e-commerce platforms in operation, compared to 291 brick-and-mortar retail stores and five e-commerce platforms as of December 31, 2024. The Company operated 133 concessions in international markets as of December 31, 2025, up from 42 concessions at the end of 2024. Through the acquisition of Kurt Geiger, we added 31 Kurt Geiger London full-price stores and 17 outlet stores, 14 Carvela full-price stores and 12 outlet stores, two e-commerce platforms, and 72 concessions.

Our inventory turnover (calculated on a trailing four quarter average) was 3.8 times for the year ended December 31, 2025 and 5.6 times for the year ended December 31, 2024. Excluding the Kurt Geiger business, our inventory turnover for the year ended December 31, 2025 was 5.0 times. Our total Company accounts receivable average collection days were 54 days in 2025 compared to 72 days in 2024. As of December 31, 2025, we had $112,423 in cash, cash equivalents, and total stockholders' equity of $903,982. Working capital was $474,992 as of December 31, 2025, compared to $480,974 as of December 31, 2024.

Amid a dynamic operating environment, we remain focused on executing our strategic priorities: delivering trend-right product, deepening connections with our consumers, expanding our international businesses, growing our non-footwear categories, expanding our direct-to-consumer business led by digital, strengthening our core U.S. wholesale business, and efficiently managing our inventory and expenses. At the same time, we are advancing our corporate social responsibility initiatives to create long-term value for our stakeholders, minimize the negative impacts on the environment, and maximize the positive impacts on our people and our communities.

The following section discusses our results of operations for 2025 and 2024 and year-to-year comparisons between those periods. Discussions of 2023 and year-to-year comparisons between 2024 and 2023 are not included in this Annual Report on Form 10-K and can be found within Part II, Item 7., “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” in our 2024 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 3, 2025.

Consolidated

Total revenue for the year ended December 31, 2025 increased 11.0% to $2,534,109 compared to $2,282,927 in 2024, primarily attributable to incremental revenue from the acquisition of Kurt Geiger, partially offset by a decline in the organic business primarily attributable to tariff-related impacts.

Gross profit in 2025 was $1,049,469, or 41.4% of total revenue, as compared to $936,932, or 41.0% of total revenue, in the prior year. The increase in gross profit as a percentage of total revenue was driven by a greater mix of the higher-margin direct-to-consumer business, primarily related to the acquisition of Kurt Geiger, partially offset by tariff-related impacts. Gross profit in both years also included $30,891 and $435, respectively, related to purchase accounting fair value adjustments of inventory from acquired businesses.

Operating expenses in 2025, were $967,978, or 38.2% of total revenue, as compared to $698,936, or 30.6% of total revenue, in 2024. The increase in operating expenses as a percentage of total revenue was primarily attributable to the acquisition of Kurt Geiger and certain Kurt Geiger acquisition-related transaction costs. The current year included $38,819 of compensation expense as a result of acquisition-related sellers proceeds which were reallocated from institutional sellers to management sellers in excess of their respective pre-acquisition equity ownership. The current year also included charges of $13,317 related to acquisition costs and the formation of joint ventures, $7,344 related to legal costs as a result of litigation settlements, and $4,030 related to certain severances and termination benefits. The prior year included charges of $6,378 related to acquisition costs and the formation of joint ventures and the reorganization of foreign entities, $3,377 related to legal costs as a result of litigation settlements, $3,199 related to a loss on the divestiture of a business, and $326 of working capital adjustments in connection with the Almost Famous acquisition.

In 2025, we recorded impairment of intangibles of $6,300 and a benefit of $5,580 related to the change in valuation of contingent payment liabilities. In 2024, we recorded impairment of intangibles of $10,335 and a charge of $2,722 related to the change in valuation of contingent payment liabilities.

Income from operations in 2025 decreased to $80,771, or 3.2% of total revenue, as compared to $224,939, or 9.9% of total revenue, in 2024. The effective tax rate for 2025 was 36.9% compared to 23.7% in 2024. The difference between the Company’s effective tax rates was primarily due to non-deductible expenses related to the acquisition of the Kurt Geiger business.

Net income attributable to Steven Madden, Ltd. in 2025 was $44,661 compared to $169,390 in 2024.

Wholesale Footwear Segment

Revenue from the Wholesale Footwear segment for the year ended December 31, 2025 was $1,035,190, or 40.9% of total revenue, as compared to $1,059,440, or 46.4% of total revenue, in 2024. The decrease of 2.3% was primarily driven by tariff-related impacts on our off-price and mass merchant businesses, partially offset by incremental revenue from the acquisition of Kurt Geiger.

Gross profit in 2025 was $346,570, or 33.5% of Wholesale Footwear revenue, compared to $366,601, or 34.6% of Wholesale Footwear revenue, in 2024. The decrease in gross profit as a percentage of revenue was primarily driven by the impact of tariffs on goods imported into the United States. Gross profit in the current-year also included $4,650 related to the purchase accounting fair value adjustments of inventory in connection with the Kurt Geiger acquisition.

Operating expenses in 2025, were $192,244, or 18.6% of Wholesale Footwear revenue, as compared to $175,389, or 16.6% of Wholesale Footwear revenue, in 2024. The increase in operating expenses as a percentage of Wholesale Footwear revenue primarily reflects the deleveraging of operating expenses on a lower revenue base and our continued investment in marketing and advertising. The current-year included charges of $1,592 related to legal costs as a result of litigation settlements, $1,438 related to certain severances and termination benefits, and $97 related to acquisition costs and the formation of joint ventures. The prior year included charges of $1,161 related to legal costs as a result of litigation settlements, and $387 related to certain severances and termination benefits, and $278 related to acquisition costs and the formation of joint ventures.

In 2025, we recorded a benefit of $259 related to the change in valuation of a contingent payment liability.

Income from operations in 2025 was $154,585, or 14.9% of Wholesale Footwear revenue, compared to $191,212, or 18.0% of Wholesale Footwear revenue, in 2024.

Wholesale Accessories/Apparel Segment

Revenue from the Wholesale Accessories/Apparel segment for the year ended December 31, 2025 was $640,662, or 25.3% of total revenue, compared to $662,673, or 29.0% of total revenue, in 2024. The decrease of 3.3% was primarily driven by tariff-related impacts and a decline in our off-price business, partially offset by incremental revenue from the acquisition of Kurt Geiger.

Gross profit in 2025 was $196,232, or 30.6% of Wholesale Accessories/Apparel revenue, compared to $212,997, or 32.1% of Wholesale Accessories/Apparel revenue, in 2024. The decrease in gross profit as a percentage of revenue was driven by the impact of tariffs on goods imported into the United States. Gross profit in both years also included $6,603 and $435, respectively, related to the purchase accounting fair value adjustments of inventory from acquired businesses.

Operating expenses in 2025 were $137,183, or 21.4% of Wholesale Accessories/Apparel revenue, as compared to $111,206, or 16.8% of Wholesale Accessories/Apparel revenue, in 2024. The increase in operating expenses as a percentage of Wholesale Accessories/Apparel revenue was primarily attributable to the deleveraging of operating expenses on a lower revenue base, and our continued investment in marketing and advertising. The current year included charges of $3,372 related to legal costs as a result of litigation settlements, $449 related to certain severances and termination benefits, and $355 related to acquisition costs and the formation of joint ventures. The comparable prior year included charges of $1,335 related to legal costs as a result of litigation settlements and earnout-related litigation, $1,180 related to certain severances and termination benefits, $677 related to acquisition costs and the formation of joint ventures, and $326 related to working capital adjustments in connection with the Almost Famous acquisition.

In 2025, we recorded impairment of intangibles of $6,300 and a benefit of $4,415 related to the change in valuation of contingent payment liabilities. In 2024, we recorded impairment of intangibles of $8,635 and a charge of $2,722 related to the change in valuation of contingent payment liabilities.

Income from operations in 2025 was $57,164, or 8.9% of Wholesale Accessories/Apparel revenue, compared to $90,434, or 13.6% of Wholesale Accessories/Apparel revenue, in 2024.

Direct-to-Consumer Segment

Revenue from the Direct-to-Consumer segment for the year ended December 31, 2025 was $845,666, or 33.4% of total revenue, as compared to $550,153, or 24.1% of total revenue, in 2024. The increase of 53.7% was driven by incremental revenue from the acquisition of Kurt Geiger. We had a total of 399 brick-and-mortar stores as compared to 291 brick-and-mortar stores as of December 31, 2024. We also had seven e-commerce platforms. We operated a total of 133 concessions in international markets as of December 31, 2025, up from 42 concessions at the end of 2024. Through the acquisition of Kurt Geiger, we added 31 Kurt Geiger London full-price stores and 17 outlet stores, 14 Carvela full-price stores and 12 outlet stores, two e-commerce platforms, and 72 concessions.

Gross profit in 2025 was $494,076, or 58.4% of Direct-to-Consumer revenue, compared to $346,673, or 63.0% of Direct-to-Consumer revenue, in 2024. The decrease in gross profit as a percentage of revenue was primarily due to a purchase accounting fair value adjustment of inventory of $19,638 in connection with acquired businesses, the impact of tariffs on goods imported into the United States, and the addition of the relatively lower gross margin concessions business in connection with the acquisition of Kurt Geiger.

Operating expenses in 2025 were $529,378, or 62.6% of Direct-to-Consumer revenue, as compared to $314,003, or 57.1% of Direct-to-Consumer revenue, in 2024. The increase in operating expenses as a percentage of revenue was primarily attributable to acquisition-related transaction costs in connection with the acquisition of Kurt Geiger. The current year included $38,819 of compensation expense as a result of acquisition-related sellers proceeds which were reallocated from institutional sellers to management sellers in excess of their respective pre-acquisition equity ownership. The current year also included charges of $9,312 related to acquisition costs in connection with the Kurt Geiger acquisition and the formation of joint ventures, $1,453 related to legal costs as a result of litigation settlements, and $1,384 related to certain severances and termination benefits. The comparable prior year included charges of $5,090 related to acquisition costs and the formation of joint ventures, $3,199 related to a loss on the divestiture of a business, and $515 related to legal costs as a result of litigation settlements.

In 2025, we recorded a benefit of $906 related to the change in valuation of a contingent payment liability. In 2024, we recorded the impairment of intangibles of $1,700.

Loss from operations in 2025 was $34,396, or 4.1% of Direct-to-Consumer revenue compared to income from operations of $30,970, or 5.6% of Direct-to-Consumer revenue, in 2024.

Licensing Segment

Royalty income from the Licensing segment for the year ended December 31, 2025 was $12,591, or 0.5% of total revenue, compared to $10,661, or 0.5% of total revenue, in 2024. Operating expenses were $1,976 in 2025 compared to $1,600 in 2024. Income from operations in 2025 was $10,615 compared to $9,061 in 2024.

Corporate

Corporate does not constitute a reportable segment and includes costs not directly attributable to the reportable operating segments. These expenses are primarily related to corporate executives, corporate finance, corporate social responsibility, legal, human resources, information technology, cybersecurity, and other shared services. Corporate operating expenses were $107,197 for the year ended December 31, 2025 compared to $96,738 in 2024.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our primary sources of liquidity are cash flows from operations, cash, cash equivalents, short-term investments, and availability under our third-party credit facilities. Cash, cash equivalents, and short-term investments totaled $112,423 and $203,408 as of December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively. Of the total cash and cash equivalents, as of December 31, 2025, $93,859, or approximately 83%, was held in our foreign subsidiaries. Of the total cash, cash equivalents, and short-term investments as of December 31, 2024, $119,569, or approximately 59%, was held in our foreign subsidiaries.

Acquisition of Kurt Geiger and Credit Agreement

On May 6, 2025 (the "Acquisition Date"), the Company, through its wholly owned subsidiary, SML UK Holding Ltd, completed the acquisition of the entire issued share capital of Mercury Acquisitions Topco Limited ("MATL") for an aggregate preliminary purchase price of $403,348, pursuant to the terms of the sale and purchase deed. We funded the cash consideration and the payment of transaction-related expenses through borrowings under the Credit Agreement and cash on hand.

On May 6, 2025, we entered into an Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the "Credit Agreement") with various lenders and Citizens Bank, as administrative agent (in such capacity, the "Agent"), which provides for a term loan facility in the amount of $300,000 and a revolving credit facility in the amount of $250,000. The Credit Agreement amends and restates in its entirety the previous Credit Agreement, dated as of July 22, 2020, among the Company, the various lenders party thereto and Citizens Bank, as administrative agent. The Company also has used, and intends to continue to use, the revolving credit facility for general corporate purposes.

The Credit Agreement provides for a term loan facility and a revolving credit facility scheduled to mature on May 6, 2030. We may from time to time increase the revolving commitments and/or request incremental term loans in an aggregate principal amount of up to $275,000 if certain conditions are satisfied, including (i) the absence of any default under the Credit Agreement, and (ii) obtaining the consent of the lenders participating in each such increase.

At December 31, 2025, the total outstanding borrowings under our Credit Agreement in the form of cash borrowings and standby letters of credit were $240,000 and $2,200, respectively.

During 2025, the Company made voluntary early repayments of $60,000 on its term loan facility. These repayments were made using available cash on hand and were not contractually required. These repayments reflect the Company's liquidity position and commitment to reducing leverage and interest expense over time.

We believe that based on our current financial position and available cash, and cash equivalents, we will meet all our financial commitments and operating needs for at least the next twelve months. In addition, our $250,000 asset-based revolving credit facility provides us with additional liquidity and flexibility on a long-term basis.

Cash Flows

A summary of our cash provided by and used in operating, investing, and financing activities was as follows.

Operating Activities

Cash provided by operating activities totaled $162,199 for the year ended December 31, 2025, compared to $198,096 in the prior year. The decrease was primarily driven by lower net income and unfavorable changes in working capital, partially offset by the timing of accounts receivable collections and changes in inventory levels.

Investing Activities

Cash used in investing activities was $400,919 for the year ended December 31, 2025, which consisted of $371,554 related to the acquisition of the Kurt Geiger business (net of cash acquired), capital expenditures of $42,658 for leasehold improvements, new stores, and systems enhancements and $260 primarily related to the acquisitions of joint ventures. This was partially offset by $13,553 related to proceeds from the sales of short-term investments.

Financing Activities

Cash provided by financing activities was $157,146 for the year ended December 31, 2025, which primarily consisted of net transaction-related borrowings of $240,000, partially offset by dividends paid of $60,962, financing costs paid of $8,955 in connection with the Credit Agreement, and net settlements of stock awards of $13,523.

Contractual and Other Obligations

Firm Commitments

Our contractual obligations as of December 31, 2025 were as follows:

(in thousands)	Payment due by period
	Total	2026	2027-2028	2029-2030	2031 and after
Operating lease obligations ⁽¹⁾	$292,963	$ 71,155	$ 106,645	$ 56,590	$ 58,573
Purchase obligations ⁽²⁾	334,641	334,641	—	—	—
Future minimum royalty ⁽³⁾	6,000	6,000	—	—	—
Employment agreements ⁽⁴⁾	52,517	10,221	18,862	15,688	7,746
Total	$686,121	$ 422,017	$ 125,507	$ 72,278	$ 66,319

⁽¹⁾ Refer to Note 13 – Leases to the consolidated financial statements included in this Annual Report on Form 10-K for further information.

⁽²⁾ Substantially all our products are produced by independent manufacturers at overseas locations, the majority of which are located in China, with a growing percentage located in Cambodia, Vietnam, Mexico, Brazil, India, Bangladesh, and various other countries in Asia, Europe, and Africa. We have not entered into any long-term manufacturing or supply contracts with any of these foreign manufacturers. We believe that a sufficient number of alternative sources exist outside of the United States for the manufacture of our products. Purchases are made primarily in United States dollars.

⁽³⁾ Future minimum royalty and advertising payments represent our obligation in connection with our licenses agreement. Refer to Note 15 – Commitments, Contingencies, and Other to the consolidated financial statements included in this Annual Report on Form 10-K for further information.

⁽⁴⁾ We have employment agreements with our Founder and Creative and Design Chief, Steven Madden, and certain executive officers, which provide for the payment of compensation. In addition, some of these employment agreements provide for incentive compensation based on various performance criteria and some provide for discretionary bonuses as well as other benefits, including stock-based compensation.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

In addition to the commitments included in the Contractual Obligations table above, we have letters of credit of $2,703 outstanding as of December 31, 2025 related to the purchase of inventory and certain lease obligations. These letters of credit expire at various dates through 2030.

We do not maintain any other off-balance sheet arrangements, transactions, obligations, or other relationships with unconsolidated entities that would be expected to have a material current or future effect on our consolidated financial statements. Refer to Note 15 – Commitments, Contingencies, and Other to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in this Annual Report on Form 10-K for further information.

Dividends

In February 2025, our Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.21 per share on our outstanding shares of common stock. The dividend was paid on March 21, 2025, to stockholders of record as of the close of business on March 12, 2025. We paid total cash dividends for the three months ended March 31, 2025 of $15,186.

In May 2025, our Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.21 per share on our outstanding shares of common stock. The dividend was paid on June 20, 2025, to stockholders of record as of the close of business on June 9, 2025. We paid total cash dividends for the three months ended June 30, 2025 of $15,250.

In July 2025, our Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.21 per share on our outstanding shares of common stock. The dividend was paid on September 23, 2025, to stockholders of record as of the close of business on September 12, 2025. We paid total cash dividends for the three months ended September 30, 2025 of $15,256.

In November 2025, our Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.21 per share on our outstanding shares of common stock. The dividend was paid on December 26, 2025, to stockholders of record as of the close of business on December 15, 2025. We paid total cash dividends for the three months ended December 31, 2025 of $15,270.

On February 24, 2026, our Board of Directors approved a quarterly cash dividend. The quarterly dividend of $0.21 per share is payable on March 20, 2026 to stockholders of record as of the close of business on March 11, 2026.

Future quarterly cash dividend payments are subject to the discretion of our Board of Directors and contingent upon future earnings, our financial condition, capital requirements, general business conditions, and other factors. Therefore, we can give no assurance that dividends will be paid to holders of our common stock in the future.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND THE USE OF ESTIMATES

Management believes the following critical accounting estimates are the most significantly affected by judgments and assumptions used in the preparation of our consolidated financial statements: allowances for doubtful accounts; markdowns and chargeback allowances, co-op advertising allowances, customer returns; inventory valuation; the valuation of goodwill and other intangible assets; and contingent payment liabilities. Our estimates are made based upon historical factors, current and future circumstances and market conditions, and the experience and judgment of management. Assumptions and estimates are evaluated on an ongoing basis, and we may employ outside experts to assist in the valuation process of our intangible assets and goodwill.

Allowances for doubtful accounts. A vast majority of our customers' receivable balances are protected under our factoring and collection agency agreements with Rosenthal & Rosenthal, Inc. ("Rosenthal") and CIT Group/Commercial Services, Inc. ("CIT"), described in Note 17 – Factoring Agreements to the consolidated financial statements included in this Form 10-K. Under this agreement, Rosenthal assumes the credit risk resulting from a customer's financial inability to make payment of credit-approved receivables. We also use risk insurance, letters of credit, and put agreements to mitigate credit risk for a significant portion of the receivables not covered under our Rosenthal and CIT agreements. The balance of receivables not covered under our factoring and insurance agreements is reduced by an allowance for amounts that may be uncollectible in the future.

The estimated allowance for doubtful accounts is based on an analysis of the aging of accounts receivable, assessments of collectability based on historical trends, the financial condition of our customers, and an evaluation of economic conditions. Differences in management's estimation of the above factors could impact our results of operations and financial position. The balances of allowances for doubtful accounts are generally correlated with our revenues from wholesale customers whose receivables are not covered under our factoring and insurance agreements, and actual losses have historically been within our expectations and in line with the allowances we have established. The balances and activity in the allowances for doubtful accounts are presented in Note 19 – Valuation and Qualifying Accounts to the consolidated financial statements included in this Form 10-K. A hypothetical 5% increase in our allowance for doubtful accounts as of December 31, 2025 would have an immaterial impact on our operating expenses.

Markdowns, chargebacks, co-op advertising, and customer returns. As described in Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies to the consolidated financial statements included in this Form 10-K, we provide variable consideration to our wholesale customers to maximize sales of our product on the retail floor, in the form of markdowns and chargeback allowances, co-op advertising allowances, and return reserves related to the current period sales.

- a. Markdowns and chargeback allowances. We evaluate anticipated customer markdowns and chargeback allowances by reviewing several performance indicators for our major customers. These performance indicators, which include inventory levels on the retail floors, sell through rates to the end consumer, and gross margin levels, are analyzed by management to estimate the amount of customer allowances. We also discuss product performance with our retail partners on an ongoing basis to gather more intelligence to inform our estimation process. Differences in management's estimation of the above factors from period to period could impact our results of operations and financial position. The levels of markdown and chargeback allowances are generally correlated with our revenues to wholesale customers. A hypothetical 5% increase in the reserve balance for markdowns and chargeback allowances as of December 31, 2025 would have decreased our 2025 revenue by approximately $1,450.
- b. Co-op advertising allowances. Under our co-op advertising programs, we agree to reimburse the retailer for a portion of the costs incurred by the retailer to advertise and promote some of our products. We estimate the costs of co-op advertising programs based on the terms of the agreements with our customers. Differences in management's estimation of the co-op advertising activity at our customers and the resulting amount of the reserve for these allowances from period to period could impact our results of operations and financial position. The level of co-op advertising support is generally correlated with our revenues to wholesale customers. A hypothetical 5% increase in the reserve balance for co-op advertising allowances as of December 31, 2025 would have an immaterial impact on our 2025 revenue.
- c. Return reserve. Our Direct-to-Consumer segment accepts unworn returns within 30 days from the date of a sale, or 30 days from the date of delivery for online orders. We estimate a return reserve in the Direct-to-Consumer segment by establishing a return rate using historical returns data. The rate is then applied to eligible revenues recorded in the current period to calculate the reserve. We do not accept returns as a normal business practice in our wholesale segments, except for our Blondo®, Dolce Vita®, and Kurt Geiger® product lines. We estimate such returns based on historical experience and current market conditions. The level of returns is generally correlated with our revenues. A hypothetical 5% increase in the return reserve as of December 31, 2025 would have an immaterial impact on our 2025 revenue.

The balances and activity in the markdown, chargeback, co-op advertising allowances, and return reserves are included in Note 19 – Valuation and Qualifying Accounts to the consolidated financial statements included in this Form 10-K.

Inventory valuation. Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value, on a first-in, first-out basis. We review inventory on a regular basis for excess and slow-moving inventory. The review is based on an analysis of the age and styles of inventory on hand, historical sales of the same or similar products, and expected net realizable value through future sales. The analysis includes a review of inventory quantities on hand at period-end in relation to year-to-date sales and projections for sales in the foreseeable future as well as subsequent sales and discussions with both traditional and off-price retailers. We consider quantities on hand in excess of estimated future sales to be at risk for market impairment. The estimated net realizable value is determined based on the estimate of selling prices of inventory through off-price and discount store channels, department stores, and our own direct-to-consumer channel. The likelihood of any material inventory write-down is dependent primarily on the expectation of future consumer demand for our products, which is influenced by consumer trends, economic and market conditions, and weather patterns for seasonal goods. A misinterpretation or misunderstanding of future consumer demand for our products due to these or any other factors could result in inventory valuation changes compared to the valuation determined to be appropriate as of the balance sheet date.

In general, our inventory obsolescence estimates have historically been within our expectations and in line with the reserves established, and although possible, significant variation is not expected in the future. A hypothetical 5% increase to inventory reserves as of December 31, 2025 would have decreased our 2025 gross profit by approximately $1,200.

Valuation of goodwill and other intangible assets. We estimate and record the fair value of purchased intangible assets at the time of their acquisition. The fair values of these intangible assets are estimated based on independent third-party appraisals that are reviewed and approved by us. Goodwill and other intangible assets deemed to have indefinite useful lives are not amortized. These assets are tested for impairment at least annually, on the first day of the third quarter, or more frequently if impairment indicators are present. Intangible assets with finite lives are amortized over their estimated useful lives and tested for impairment if indicators are present.

Our annual impairment assessment of goodwill and other indefinite-lived intangible assets is generally performed using a qualitative approach to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit or intangible asset is less than its carrying amount. Performance of the qualitative impairment assessment requires judgment in identifying and considering the significance of relevant events and circumstances including external factors, such as macroeconomic and industry conditions, and the legal and regulatory environment, as well as entity-specific factors, such as actual and planned financial performance, that could impact the fair value of our reporting units and indefinite-lived intangible assets. The results of our most recent quantitative tests are also considered in performing the qualitative assessment.

If the results of the annual qualitative assessment conclude that it is not more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit or an indefinite-lived intangible asset exceeds its carrying value, or if interim indicators of impairment are identified, a quantitative impairment test is performed.

A quantitative impairment test involves comparing the fair value of a reporting unit or intangible asset with its carrying value. If the fair value is less than the carrying value, an impairment loss is recorded for an amount equal to the excess of the carrying value over the fair value. For goodwill, the impairment loss is limited to the amount of the respective reporting unit's allocated goodwill. Determination of the fair value of a reporting unit or indefinite-lived intangible asset is subjective in nature and involves the use of significant estimates and assumptions including consideration of external factors, such as macroeconomic and industry conditions, and the legal and regulatory environment, as well as entity-specific factors such as actual and planned financial performance. These estimates and assumptions could have a significant impact on whether an impairment charge is recognized and the amount of any such charge. Estimates of fair value are primarily determined using discounted cash flows, market comparisons, and recent transactions. These approaches use significant estimates and assumptions, including projected future cash flows, discount rates, growth rates, and determination of appropriate market comparisons. It is possible that our conclusions regarding impairment of goodwill or other intangible assets could change in future periods if, for example, our businesses do not perform as projected or overall economic conditions in future periods vary from current assumptions.

Our annual impairment tests were last performed as of July 1, 2025, using a quantitative impairment test as described above, the results of which concluded that the fair values of its reporting units exceeded their carrying values and the fair values of its reporting units and indefinite-lived intangible assets exceeded their respective carrying values. No goodwill or intangible asset impairment charges were recorded as a result of our annual impairment tests during any of the years presented in this Form 10-K.

See Note 7 – Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets to the consolidated financial statements included in this Form 10-K for further details.

Contingent payment liabilities. We have completed acquisitions that may require us to make contingent payments to the sellers based on the future financial performance of the acquired businesses over a period from one to five years. The fair values of the contingent payment liabilities are estimated using the present values of management's projections of the financial results of the acquired businesses. Failure to correctly project the financial results of the acquired businesses could materially impact our results of operations and financial position. See Note 4 – Acquisitions, Purchases and Sales of Joint Ventures, and Divestitures and Note 5 – Fair Value Measurements to the consolidated financial statements included in this Form 10-K for further details.

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

($ in thousands)

Interest Rate Risk

We do not engage in the trading of market risk sensitive instruments in the normal course of our business.

As of December 31, 2025, we had outstanding borrowings of $240,000 under our new senior secured term loan facility pursuant to the Credit Agreement (See Note 16 – Credit Agreement), which bears interest at a variable rate based on a benchmark rate (e.g., Term SOFR) plus an applicable margin. We did not have outstanding borrowings under our $250,000 revolving credit facility, which bears interest at a variable rate. Our interest expense is therefore subject to fluctuations in market interest rates. A hypothetical 100 basis point increase in interest rates would increase annual interest expense by approximately $24,000 on our term loan balance, excluding the potential impact of any future borrowings under our revolving credit facility.

Foreign Currency Exchange Rate Risk

We face market risk to the extent that our U.S. or foreign operations involve the transaction of business in foreign currencies. In addition, our inventory purchases are primarily done in foreign jurisdictions and inventory purchases may be impacted by fluctuations in the exchange rates between the U.S. dollar and the local currencies of our contract manufacturers, which could have the effect of increasing the cost of goods sold in the future. We manage these risks primarily by denominating these purchases in U.S. dollars. To mitigate the risk of purchases that are denominated in foreign currencies we may enter into forward foreign exchange contracts for terms of no more than two years. A description of our accounting policies for derivative financial instruments is included in Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Note 12 – Derivative Instruments to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

The acquisition of Kurt Geiger significantly increases our exposure to foreign currency exchange rate risk. Kurt Geiger generates a substantial portion of its revenue and incurs significant expenses in British pounds sterling (GBP), while our consolidated financial statements are reported in U.S. dollars (USD). Additionally, future cash flows from Kurt Geiger's operations may be affected by changes in foreign currency exchange rates. We actively monitor our foreign currency exposures and, from time to time, enter into hedging arrangements to mitigate the impact of exchange rate fluctuations on our financial results. However, these hedging activities may not fully offset our exposure to currency movements and could involve additional costs or risks.

As of December 31, 2025, we had entered into forward foreign exchange contracts with notional amounts totaling $113,473. We performed a sensitivity analysis based on a model that measures the impact of a hypothetical change in foreign currency exchange rates to determine the effects that market risk exposures may have on the fair values of our forward foreign exchange contracts that were outstanding as of December 31, 2025. As of December 31, 2025, a 10% increase or decrease of the U.S. dollar against the exchange rates for foreign currencies under forward foreign exchange contracts, with all other variables held constant, would result in a net increase or decrease in the fair value of our derivatives portfolio of approximately $203, which is immaterial to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

In addition, we are exposed to translation risk in connection with our foreign operations because our subsidiaries and joint ventures in these international markets utilize the local currency as their functional currency, and those financial results are translated into U.S. dollars. Therefore, currency exchange rates may affect the comparability of financial results between reporting periods and fiscal years.

As of the end of the fourth quarter of 2025, the U.S. dollar had depreciated approximately 10% on a year-to-date basis, based on movements in the U.S. dollar index. While fluctuations in exchange rates can affect both our operating results and financial position, including the translation of results from our foreign subsidiaries, we have evaluated the impact of this depreciation and determined that these currency movements did not result in a material change in our overall foreign currency risk exposure as of the end of the year. We continue to monitor exchange rate developments and assess their potential effect on our financial results and hedging activities.

Inflation Risk

Inflationary factors generally affect us by reducing consumer spending, increasing our labor and overhead costs, and negatively impacting our direct-to-consumer and wholesale sales, all of which may adversely affect our results of operations, and financial position. We have historically been able to minimize the impacts of inflation by raising prices, renegotiating costs, getting supplier concessions, changing suppliers or countries of origin, and improving operating efficiencies. However, no assurance can be given that we will be able to offset such inflationary impacts in the future.

ITEM 8. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND SUPPLEMENTARY DATA

The information required by this Item is incorporated herein by reference to the consolidated financial statements listed in response to Item 15 of Part IV of this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

ITEM 9. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

Not applicable.

ITEM 9A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

As required by Rule 13a-15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the fiscal year covered by this Annual Report on Form 10-K. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Exchange Act) were effective as of the end of the fiscal year covered by this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Management's Annual Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Management of Steven Madden, Ltd. is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) of the Exchange Act).

Our internal control over financial reporting is a process designed by, or under the supervision of, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, and effected by the Board of Directors, management, and other personnel, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). Our internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of our assets; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP, and that our receipts and expenditures are being made only in accordance with authorizations of our management and directors; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of our assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect all misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

With the participation of the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, our management conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness, as of the end of our fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, of our internal control over financial reporting based on the framework and criteria established in the 2013 Internal Control-Integrated Framework, issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO). Based on this evaluation our management has concluded that, as of December 31, 2025, our internal control over financial reporting was effective.

As permitted by the rules and regulations of the SEC, due to the timing of the closing of the acquisition of the Kurt Geiger business, our management's assessment as to the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting did not include the internal controls of Mercury Acquisitions Topco Limited d/b/a Kurt Geiger, which we acquired on May 6, 2025. The acquired business constituted 31.2% of consolidated total assets as of December 31, 2025, and 15.9% of consolidated total revenue for the year ended December 31, 2025.

Our independent registered public accounting firm, Ernst & Young LLP, has audited our consolidated financial statements and the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025. Their attestation report appears in this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

There was no change in our internal control over financial reporting, as identified in connection with the evaluation required by paragraph (d) of Rule 13a-15 of the Exchange Act, that occurred during the fiscal quarter ended December 31, 2025, which has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

ITEM 9B. OTHER INFORMATION

During the three months ended December 31, 2025, none of the Company's directors or officers (as defined in Rule 16a-1(f) of the Exchange Act) adopted, modified, or terminated any contract, instruction, or written plan for the purchase or sale of our securities that was intended to satisfy the affirmative defense conditions of Rule 10b5-1(c) of the Exchange Act or any non-Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement as defined in Item 408(a) of Regulation S-K under the Exchange Act.

A copy of our insider trading policy and related Rule 10b5-1 trading plan policy was filed as Exhibit 19.01 to our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024 and is incorporated by reference.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Stockholders and the Board of Directors of Steven Madden, Ltd.

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Steven Madden, Ltd. and subsidiaries (the Company) as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the related consolidated statements of operations, comprehensive income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2025, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "consolidated financial statements"). In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company at December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2025, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB), the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, based on criteria established in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (2013 framework), and our report dated March 2, 2026 expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Critical Audit Matters

The critical audit matters communicated below are matters arising from the current period audit of the financial statements that were communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that: (1) relate to accounts or disclosures that are material to the financial statements and (2) involved our especially challenging, subjective or complex judgments. The communication of critical audit matters does not alter in any way our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, taken as a whole, and we are not, by communicating the critical audit matters below, providing separate opinions on the critical audit matters or on the accounts or disclosures to which they relate.

Markdown allowances

Description of the Matter

As described in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, revenue recognized by the Company is measured as the amount of consideration the Company expects to receive in exchange for goods, including estimates for variable consideration. Variable consideration includes markdown allowances which are recorded as a reduction of revenue in the period in which revenues are recognized. Estimating the amount of markdown allowance reserves to be recorded requires management to review several performance indicators, including retailers' inventory levels, sell-through rates and gross margin levels.

Auditing management's estimate of markdown allowance reserves was judgmental because reserve amounts are based on the expected performance of the products in the customers' stores which may be impacted by changes in market or economic conditions and have a direct impact on the amount of revenue recognized by the Company.

How We Addressed the Matter in Our Audit

We obtained an understanding, evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of internal controls over the Company's process to calculate the markdown allowance reserves, including the consideration of historical experience, actual and forecasted results, and current economic and market conditions.

To evaluate the estimate of markdown allowance reserves, we performed audit procedures that included, among others, assessing the Company's methodology and testing the assumptions used to project future markdown allowances considering any impact of related internal and external market factors. We evaluated the allowance rates compared to historical results and performed sensitivity analyses on certain assumptions to assess the potential impact of reasonable changes on the overall estimate. We also evaluated the historical accuracy of management's estimates.

Valuation of trademark acquired in the Kurt Geiger acquisition

Description of the Matter

As disclosed in Note 4 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company acquired Mercury Acquisitions Topco Limited, the ultimate parent company of the Kurt Geiger business, on May 6, 2025 for total purchase consideration of $403.3 million. The Company accounted for the business combination by recognizing the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at their fair value as of the date of acquisition, with the excess recorded as goodwill. The assets acquired included a trademark which is an indefinite-lived intangible asset that was valued at $126.3 million.

Auditing the Company's purchase price allocation was complex due to the significant estimation required to determine the fair value of the trademark. The significant assumptions used to estimate the value of the trademark included revenue growth rates, EBITDA margins, and discount rate. These significant assumptions were forward-looking and could be affected by future economic and market conditions.

How We Addressed the Matter in Our Audit

We obtained an understanding, evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of controls over the Company's determination of the fair value of the acquired trademark, including controls over management's review of the significant assumptions described above.

To test the estimated fair value of the acquired trademark, we performed audit procedures that included, among others, assessing the valuation methodology used and testing the significant assumptions discussed above and the underlying data used by the Company in its analysis. For example, we evaluated the Company's projected revenue growth rates and EBITDA margins by considering historical results of the acquired business and current industry and economic trends. In addition, we involved our internal valuation specialists to assist in assessing the methodology and testing the discount rate. We also performed a sensitivity analysis on certain of the significant assumptions to evaluate the change in the fair value estimate that would result from changes in assumptions.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Stockholders and the Board of Directors of Steven Madden, Ltd.

Opinion on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

We have audited Steven Madden, Ltd. and subsidiaries' internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, based on criteria established in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (2013 framework) (the COSO criteria). In our opinion, Steven Madden, Ltd. and subsidiaries (the Company) maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2025, based on the COSO criteria.

As indicated in the accompanying Management's Annual Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting, management's assessment of and conclusion on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting did not include the internal controls of Mercury Acquisitions Topco Limited d/b/a Kurt Geiger, which is included in the 2025 consolidated financial statements of the Company and constituted 31.2% of consolidated total assets as of December 31, 2025 and 15.9% of consolidated total revenue for the year then ended. Our audit of internal control over financial reporting of the Company also did not include an evaluation of the internal control over financial reporting of Kurt Geiger.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB), the consolidated balance sheets of the Company as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the related consolidated statements of operations, comprehensive income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2025, and the related notes and our report dated March 2, 2026 expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

Basis for Opinion

The Company's management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting included in the accompanying Management's Annual Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects.

Our audit included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk, and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Definition and Limitations of Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

STEVEN MADDEN, LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

All figures discussed in these notes to our consolidated financial statements are in thousands, except for store count and per share amounts.

Note 1 – Nature of Operations

Steven Madden, Ltd. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”, “we”, or “our”) design, source, and market fashion-forward branded and private label footwear, accessories, and apparel. The Company distributes its products through the wholesale channel to department stores, mass merchants, off-price retailers, shoe chains, online retailers, national chains, specialty retailers, independent stores, and clubs throughout the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, and Mexico. Additionally, the Company operates in other international markets through its joint ventures in South Africa, the Middle East, Israel, Australia, various countries in Europe, Latin America, and certain countries in Asia, and through special distribution arrangements in various European countries, North Africa, South and Central America, and various countries within the Asia-Pacific region. The Company also distributes its products through its direct-to-consumer channel, which includes company-operated retail stores, third-party concessions in international markets, and e-commerce platforms, in the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, Mexico, South Africa, the Middle East, Israel, Latin America, and the Asia-Pacific region.

The Company’s product offerings include a diverse range of contemporary styles, designed to establish or capitalize on market trends, complemented by core product offerings. The Company is recognized for its design creativity and ability to deliver trend-right products with high quality at accessible price points, efficiently and with speed-to-market.

The Company operates in four reportable segments: Wholesale Footwear, Wholesale Accessories/Apparel, Direct-to-Consumer, and Licensing. Refer to Note 18 – Operating Segment Information for further information.

As of December 31, 2025, the Company operated 399 brick-and-mortar stores, seven e-commerce platforms, and 133 concessions in international markets.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Steven Madden, Ltd. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. Additionally, the Company consolidates the accounts of the following joint ventures, in which it holds a controlling financial interest: SM Dolce Limited (Hong Kong), SM Distribution Israel L.P. (Israel), SM Distribution Singapore Pte. Ltd. (Singapore), SM Distribution Malaysia Sdn. Bhd. (Malaysia), SM Distribution Latin America S. de R.L. (Latin America), Madden Operations Ltd. (Israel), Steve Madden South Africa Proprietary Limited (South Africa), SM Fashion Australia Pty Ltd. (Australia), AG SM Holdings Limited (Middle East), SM Fashion d.o.o. Beograd (Serbia), MG Distribution Hong Kong Limited (China, Hong Kong, and Macau), and BA Brand Holdings LLC (United States).

The interests of non-controlling shareholders in these consolidated entities are presented as net income attributable to noncontrolling interest in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and as noncontrolling interest in the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“GAAP”) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the following: the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the balance sheet date, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Significant areas involving management estimates include inventory valuation, goodwill and other intangible assets valuation, assets acquired and liabilities assumed in business combinations, and variable consideration as part of revenue recognition, including chargebacks, markdown allowances, discounts, returns, and compliance-related deductions. The Company estimates variable consideration by analyzing several performance indicators for its major customers, including retailers’ inventory levels, sell-through rates, and gross margin levels. Management continuously evaluates these factors to estimate anticipated chargebacks and allowances.

STEVEN MADDEN, LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash balances and highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less as of the date of purchase.

Short-Term Investments

Short-term investments consist of securities which the Company expects to convert into cash within one year, including time deposits with original maturities greater than three months but less than or equal to one year.

Inventories

Inventories consist of finished goods, both on hand and in transit, and are recorded at the lower of cost (determined using the first-in, first-out method) or net realizable value.

Property and Equipment, Net

Property and equipment, net is recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization including the impact of impairments and disposals. Depreciation and amortization is calculated using the straight-line method over estimated useful lives ranging from three to 27.5 years. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the shorter of their estimated useful lives or the remaining lease term. Refer to Note 6 – Property and Equipment for further information.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets, including property and equipment and operating lease right-of-use ("ROU") assets, are assessed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances suggest that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. Recoverability is evaluated by comparing the asset or asset group's carrying value to the Company's best estimate of undiscounted future cash flows. If the carrying value is in excess of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows, the Company will measure any impairment loss by comparing the carrying value of the asset or asset group to its fair value.

When estimating future cash flows, the Company considers various factors, including macroeconomic trends, consumer spending, capital investments, promotional activities, and advertising expenditures. As these estimates require significant judgment, actual results may differ, potentially leading to future impairments.

Fair value is generally determined using a discounted cash flow ("DCF") model or market approach, depending on the availability of market data and the nature of the asset. Under the DCF model, significant assumptions include estimates of future cash flows and discount rates, which reflect the risks associated with the expected future cash flows. When sufficient market data is available, the Company may apply a market approach by considering comparable market transactions, quoted market prices for similar assets, or appraisals when available.

Impairment of Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

The Company's goodwill and other indefinite-lived intangible assets are not amortized but are tested for impairment annually at the beginning of the third quarter, or more frequently if events or circumstances indicate potential impairment.

In accordance with applicable accounting guidance, impairment may be assessed using a qualitative evaluation of relevant factors, including historical and expected financial performance, macroeconomic and industry conditions, and the legal and regulatory environment. If qualitative factors suggest it is more likely than not that the fair value of an intangible asset or reporting unit is lower than its carrying amount, a quantitative impairment test is performed. As part of its ongoing assessment, the Company periodically conducts a quantitative impairment analysis instead of a qualitative assessment. If the fair value of an intangible asset or reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, an impairment loss is recognized, limited to the intangible asset or reporting unit's carrying value. Refer to Note 7 – Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets for further information.

Finite-lived intangible assets are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives, typically ranging from 10 to 20 years, and are reviewed for impairment when indicators of impairment are present.

Amounts reclassified from accumulated other comprehensive loss into operating income in the Consolidated Statements of Operations during 2025, 2024, and 2023 were immaterial.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and are included within operating expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, advertising costs were $133,598, $101,954, and $89,435, respectively.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when it satisfies performance obligations identified under customer contracts, typically upon the transfer of control in accordance with the contractual terms and conditions of the sale. Most of the Company's revenue is recognized at a point in time when the product is shipped to the customer. Revenue is measured as the amount of consideration the Company expects to receive in exchange for goods, including estimates for variable consideration. Variable consideration primarily includes markdown allowances, co-op advertising programs, and product returns. Revenue recognition policy by segment is described below. Refer to Note 18 – Operating Segment Information for disaggregated revenue by segment.

Wholesale Footwear and Wholesale Accessories/Apparel Segments. The Company generates revenue through the design, sourcing, and sale of branded and private label footwear, accessories, and apparel to both domestic and international customers who then sell the products to end consumers. The Company recognizes revenue when it satisfies performance obligations identified under the terms of customer contracts, typically upon the transfer of control of merchandise in accordance with contractual terms and conditions of the sale.

Direct-to-Consumer Segment. The Company generates revenue from the direct sale of branded footwear, apparel, and accessories to end consumers through Company-operated retail stores, concession locations, and e-commerce channels. Revenue from retail stores and concessions is recognized at the point of sale when control of the merchandise transfers to the end consumer, which is generally at the time of purchase in stores. Revenue from e-commerce transactions is recognized when control of the product transfers to the end consumer, typically upon delivery.

Licensing Segment. The Company licenses various trademarks under agreements that allow licensees to manufacture, market, and sell select apparel, accessories, home goods, and other non-core products. License agreements require royalty and, in most cases, advertising fee payments, both of which are based on the greater of a minimum or a percentage of net revenues. For license agreements where the sales-based royalty exceeds the contractual minimum, revenue is recognized as licensed products are sold, based on reports from licensees. For agreements where the contractual minimum fee is not exceeded, revenue is recognized ratably over the contract period. Minimum guaranteed royalties are generally earned and received quarterly.

Variable Consideration

The Company provides markdown allowances and participates in co-op advertising programs to support retail sales of its products. These costs are deducted from gross sales to arrive at net sales in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Markdown Allowances. The Company provides markdown allowances to certain of its retailer customers, which are recorded as a reduction of revenue in the period in which the branded footwear and accessories/apparel revenues are recognized. The Company estimates its markdown allowances by reviewing several performance indicators, including retailers' inventory levels, sell-through rates, and gross margin levels.

Co-op Advertising Programs. Under co-op advertising programs, the Company agrees to reimburse the retailer for a portion of the costs incurred by the retailer to advertise and promote some of the Company's products. The Company estimates the costs of co-op advertising programs based on the terms of the agreements with its retailer customers.

Rights of Return. The Company's Direct-to-Consumer segment accepts returns within 30 days from the date of sale (in-store) or delivery (online) for unworn merchandise that can be resold. Returns from wholesale customers are generally not accepted, except for the Company's Blondo[®] and Dolce Vita[®] product lines. The Company estimates returns based on historical trends and current market conditions, which have historically not been material. In cases where wholesale customers return damaged products, the Company typically recovers costs from the responsible third-party factory.

Taxes Collected from Customers

The Company accounts for certain taxes collected from its customers in accordance with the accounting guidance that allows for either gross presentation (included in revenue and costs) or net presentation (excluded from revenue). Taxes within the scope of this accounting guidance include all taxes assessed by government authorities that are both imposed on and concurrent with revenue-producing transactions and collected by the entity from customers, such as sales taxes, use taxes, value-added taxes, and certain excise taxes. The Company has elected to present such amounts on a net basis and excludes these amounts from revenue.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales includes expenses directly associated with the procurement and landed cost of inventory and costs incurred to bring finished products to the Company's distribution centers, customers' freight forwarders, and Company-operated retail locations (excluding depreciation and amortization). These costs include finished product costs, purchase commissions, letter of credit fees, brokerage fees, sample expenses, custom duties, inbound freight, royalty payments on licensed products, and packaging and labeling costs.

For concession arrangements, fees paid to concession partners, which are typically calculated as a percentage of sales, are recorded within operating expenses. These fees represent selling and occupancy-related costs associated with the sales channel and are not considered costs of inventory.

The Company's gross margins may not be directly comparable to those of other industry participants, as certain companies may classify distribution, warehousing, or similar costs differently.

Warehouse and Shipping Costs

The Company includes warehouse and shipping costs in operating expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, total warehouse and shipping costs were $133,575, $97,958, and $97,100, respectively. Since the Company's standard terms of sales are "FOB Steve Madden warehouse," wholesale customers are typically responsible for any shipping costs. Shipping costs incurred by the Company for wholesale customers were not considered significant. Costs associated with distribution activities, warehousing, and outbound freight to customers are accounted for as fulfillment activities and reflected as operating expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Employee Benefit Plan

The Company maintains a tax-qualified 401(k) plan, which is available to each of the Company's eligible employees who elect to participate after meeting certain length-of-service and age requirements. The Company matches 50% of employees' contributions up to a maximum of 6% of eligible compensation, with vesting occurring over a specified period. Total matching contributions for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 were approximately $4,218, $2,658, and $2,301, respectively.

Derivative Instruments

The Company uses derivative instruments to manage its exposure to cash flow variability from foreign currency risk. Derivatives are recorded at fair value and included in prepaid expenses and other current assets or accrued expenses on the

STEVEN MADDEN, LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Consolidated Balance Sheets. The Company applies cash flow hedge accounting for its derivative instruments. Net gains and losses from these derivative instruments are recorded in accumulated other comprehensive loss and reclassified to earnings in future periods when the related economic transactions impact earnings. Refer to Note 12 – Derivative Instruments for further information.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method, recognizing deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities, as well as for operating losses and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the currently enacted tax rates applicable to taxable income for the periods in which these assets and liabilities are expected to be realized or settled. The Company records a valuation allowance to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount that is more likely than not to be realized.

The Company recognizes tax benefits from uncertain tax positions only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities, based on its technical merits. Recognized tax benefits are then measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon settlement. Refer to Note 14 – Income Taxes for further information.

Share-based Compensation

The Company recognizes compensation costs for share-based awards when employees provide services in exchange for equity instruments. The Company's share-based compensation awards include the following:

Restricted stock awards. Compensation costs for restricted stock awards is measured based on the closing fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant.

Stock options. Compensation costs for stock options is determined at the grant date, measured based on the fair value as calculated using the Black-Scholes-Merton ("BSM") option-pricing model. The BSM option-pricing model incorporates various assumptions, including expected volatility, estimated option life, and interest rates.

Performance-based share awards. The Company grants performance-based share awards to certain individuals, the vesting of which is contingent on the achievement of Company or individual performance goals. The Company estimates the probable outcome of the performance conditions, based on actual performance against these goals quarterly and adjusts the share-based compensation expense accordingly. Shares are distributed upon completion of the service and performance periods. Compensation costs for performance-based awards is measured based on the closing fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant.

Transaction Incentive Plan. The Company maintains a transaction incentive plan ("TIP") in connection with its acquisition of Kurt Geiger. The TIP provides for potential cash payments to certain participants based on the achievement of specified performance targets over multiple annual measurement periods and a cumulative measurement period.

The TIP is accounted for as a liability-classified share-based compensation award under ASC 718, Compensation – Stock Compensation. Compensation cost is recognized only when achievement of the applicable performance condition is deemed probable, based on management's assessment of expected performance against the established targets.

When achievement of a performance condition is considered probable, the Company recognizes compensation expense over the remaining requisite service period for the applicable measurement period, with a corresponding liability recorded in accrued incentive compensation or other liabilities, as appropriate. The liability is remeasured at each reporting date based on the Company's current assessment of the probability of achieving the performance conditions and the estimated amount of the ultimate payout.

Compensation cost is adjusted prospectively for changes in the estimated probability of achievement or expected payout amount. If achievement of a performance condition is no longer considered probable, previously recognized compensation cost is reversed. Cash payments made under the TIP are recorded as reductions of the related liability.

The Company recognizes share-based compensation costs net of estimated forfeitures. The Company estimates forfeiture rates based on historical data. Share-based compensation costs are recognized over the award's requisite service period and are included in operating expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Refer to Note 8 – Share-Based Compensation for further information.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Leases

The Company leases office space, sample production space, warehouses, showrooms, storage units, and retail stores under operating leases. The Company's portfolio of leases is primarily related to real estate. Since most of its leases do not provide a readily determinable implicit rate, the Company estimates its incremental borrowing rate to discount the lease payments based on information available at lease commencement.

Some of the Company's retail store leases provide for variable lease payments based on sales volumes at the leased locations. Because these variable lease payments cannot be measured at lease inception, they are excluded from the initial measurement of the ROU assets and lease liabilities and instead are expensed as incurred in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 842, "Leases."

The Company's leases have initial terms ranging from 1 to 12 years and may have renewal or early termination options ranging from 1 to 10 years. Many of the retail store leases provide for contingent rental payments if gross sales exceed certain targets. In addition, many of the leases contain rent escalation clauses to compensate for increases in operating costs and real estate taxes. Rent expense is calculated by amortizing total base rental payments (net of any rental abatements, construction allowances, and other rental concessions), on a straight-line basis, over the lease term. When renewal or termination options are deemed reasonably certain, they are included in the determination of the lease term and calculation of the ROU asset and lease liability.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications were made to prior years' amounts to conform to the current years' presentation.

Note 3 – Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements Adopted

In August 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2023-05, "Business Combinations—Joint Venture Formations (Subtopic 805-60): Recognition and Initial Measurement," which is intended to provide guidance for the formation of a joint venture, including the initial measurement of assets and liabilities, the formation date, and basis of accounting. This standard was effective for all joint venture formations with a formation date on or after January 1, 2025. The Company adopted ASU 2023-05 for the year ended December 31, 2025. The adoption did not have any impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-09, "Income Taxes (Topic 740)," which is intended to provide greater transparency in various income tax components that affect the rate reconciliation based on the applicable taxing jurisdictions, as well as the qualitative and quantitative aspects of those components. This standard was effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after December 15, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted ASU 2023-09 for the year ended December 31, 2025, and applied it retrospectively to all prior periods presented. The adoption of ASU 2023-09 did not have an impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements, but did require increased disclosures within the notes to its consolidated financial statements. Refer to Note 14 – Income Taxes for further information.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

In November 2024, the FASB issued ASU No. 2024-03, "Income Statement - Reporting Comprehensive Income - Expense Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40)," which requires disaggregation of certain expense captions into specified categories in disclosures. This new standard is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2026, with early adoption permitted. Adoption of this ASU can be applied using either a prospective or a retrospective approach. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of ASU 2024-03. The Company does not expect that this ASU will have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements, but it will require increased disclosures within the notes to its consolidated financial statements.

In July 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-05, "Financial Instruments - Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses for Accounts Receivable and Contract Assets," which introduces a practical expedient for estimating credit losses on current accounts receivable and contract assets. The ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2025, and interim periods within those annual reporting periods. ASU 2025-05 should be applied prospectively. The Company does not expect the application of this standard to have a material impact on its financial statements and related disclosures.

In September 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-06, "Intangibles - Goodwill and Other - Internal-Use Software (Subtopic 350-40): Targeted Improvements to the Accounting for Internal-Use Software," which removes references to project stages, and requires capitalization of software costs to begin when management has authorized and committed to funding the software project, and it is probable that the project will be completed and the software will be used to perform the intended function. The ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2027, and interim periods within those annual reporting periods. Adoption of this ASU can be applied using either a prospective or a retrospective approach. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of the standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In September 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-07, "Derivatives and Hedging (Topic 815) and Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606): Derivatives Scope Refinements and Scope Clarification for Share-Based Noncash Consideration from a Customer in a Revenue Contract," which (1) refines the scope of Topic 815 to clarify which contracts are subject to derivative accounting and (2) provides clarification under Topic 606 related to share-based payments from a customer in a revenue contract. The ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim periods within those annual reporting periods. Adoption of this ASU can be applied using either a prospective or a retrospective approach. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of the standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In November 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-09, "Derivatives and Hedging (Topic 815): Hedge Accounting Improvements," which includes amendments to more closely align hedge accounting with the economics of an entity's risk management activities. This new standard is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2026, with early adoption permitted. ASU 2025-09 should be applied prospectively. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of the standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In December 2025, the FASB issued ASU No. 2025-11, "Interim Reporting (Topic 270): Narrow-Scope Improvements." The ASU clarifies interim disclosure requirements and the applicability of Topic 270. The objective of the amendments is to provide clarity about the current interim disclosure requirements. The ASU is effective for interim reporting periods within annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2027, with early adoption permitted. Adoption of this ASU can be applied using either a prospective or a retrospective approach. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of the standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

In December 2025, the FASB issued ASU No. 2025-12, "Codification Improvements." The ASU addresses 33 items in the Accounting Standards Codification with intent to clarify, correct errors, or make minor improvements. The ASU is effective for interim reporting periods within annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2026, with early adoption permitted. The adoption method of this ASU may vary, on an issue-by-issue basis. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of the standard will have on its consolidated financial statements.

The Company has considered all new accounting pronouncements and has concluded that there are no additional pronouncements that may have a material impact on its results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

Note 4 – Acquisitions, Purchases and Sales of Joint Ventures, and Divestitures

Acquisitions

Acquisition of Kurt Geiger

On May 6, 2025 (the "Acquisition Date"), the Company, through its wholly owned subsidiary, SML UK Holding Ltd, completed the acquisition of the entire issued share capital of Mercury Acquisitions Topco Limited ("MATL") for an aggregate preliminary purchase price of $403,348, which includes cash consideration of $390,453 paid at closing and $12,895 of contingent consideration as described further below, pursuant to the terms of the sale and purchase deed. The purchase price included payments made by the Company for the settlement of MATL's previously outstanding third-party bank debt and the reimbursement of certain seller-incurred transaction costs, in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 805, Business Combinations ("ASC 805"). The equity interests of MATL were previously held by various institutional shareholders, including the Fifth Cinven Fund, Bain & Company, Inc., and Squam Lake Investors X LP (BGPI), as well as certain management shareholders.

MATL is the ultimate parent company of the Kurt Geiger business ("Kurt Geiger"), which operates primarily in the UK, U.S., and Europe. Kurt Geiger designs and sells footwear and accessories under its own brands – including Kurt Geiger London, KG Kurt Geiger, and Carvela – through retail stores, e-commerce, and wholesale partnerships, and operates third party concessions in luxury and premium department stores primarily in the UK. Kurt Geiger was founded in 1963 and is headquartered in London, United Kingdom.

STEVEN MADDEN, LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The acquisition aligns with the Company’s strategic objectives of expanding its international footprint, non-footwear categories, and direct-to-consumer business, and the Company believes the acquisition strengthens the Company’s portfolio of brands.

The acquisition was funded through a combination of debt financing and cash on hand. In connection with the debt financing, effective May 6, 2025, the Company amended and restated its original Credit Agreement in its entirety, replacing it with a new term loan facility in the amount of $300,000 and a new revolving credit facility with a total capacity of $250,000. For further information, see Note 16 – Credit Agreement.

As a result of the acquisition, MATL became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Accordingly, the results of MATL have been included in the Company’s consolidated financial statements since the Acquisition Date. Results of MATL are allocated to the Company’s existing reportable segments (Wholesale Footwear, Wholesale Accessories/Apparel, Direct-to-Consumer, and Licensing) based on the sales channel and product category that generated the revenue. For the period beginning with the Acquisition Date and ended December 31, 2025, MATL contributed revenue of $402,822 and had net loss of $50,644.

Preliminary Purchase Price Allocation

The acquisition was accounted for in accordance with ASC 805. As such, we have applied acquisition accounting, which requires, among other things, that the assets acquired and liabilities assumed be recognized at their estimated acquisition-date fair values. The following table summarizes the Company’s preliminary allocation of the purchase price to the estimated fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed as of the Acquisition Date.

Balance Sheet Classification	Fair Value
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 18,899
Accounts receivable	31,644
Inventories	180,552
Operating lease right-of-use asset	75,825
Prepaid expenses and other current assets	9,777
Income tax receivable and prepaid income taxes	3,350
Property and equipment	39,320
Intangibles	176,867
Accounts payable	(32,868)
Accrued expenses	(47,079)
Income taxes payable	(761)
Operating leases – current portion	(8,603)
Operating leases – long-term portion	(68,251)
Deferred tax liabilities	(34,207)
Other liabilities	(5,655)
Total fair value excluding goodwill	338,810
Goodwill	64,538
Net assets acquired	$ 403,348

The Company is in the process of finalizing its purchase price allocation for the acquisition. While the Company has substantially completed its valuation procedures, the purchase price allocation remains preliminary with respect to the valuation of certain assets, including acquired inventory and identifiable intangible assets. The Company expects to finalize the purchase price allocation during the measurement period, not to exceed one year from the Acquisition Date as permitted under ASC 805. Any changes to the preliminary estimates of fair value during the measurement period will be recorded as adjustments to those assets and liabilities with a corresponding adjustment to goodwill in the period in which the adjustments are determined.

We used the following valuation techniques for the following significant accounts in which carrying value did not approximate fair value: (i) inventories were valued primarily using an income approach with significant assumptions including estimated selling price of the inventory, less the costs to dispose of, and sell the inventory, as well as a reasonable profit allowance for the selling effort; (ii) property and equipment were valued primarily using the replacement cost approach with significant assumptions including replacement cost, asset useful lives, remaining service potential, and adjustments related to obsolescence and (iii) operating lease right-of-use asset was valued primarily using an income approach where each lease was evaluated to determine whether the contractual lease terms were favorable or unfavorable relative to current market conditions with significant assumptions including estimated market rental rates, discount rates, remaining lease terms, and property-specific economic factors (e.g., square footage).

Intangible Assets

The components of intangible assets acquired in connection with the Kurt Geiger acquisition were as follows:

Intangible Asset	Estimated Lives	Amortization Method	Estimated Fair Value
Trademark	Indefinite	N/A	$ 126,286
Customer relationships	15-20 years	Straight-line	50,581
Total intangible assets			$ 176,867

The fair values of the intangible assets were estimated using valuation techniques deemed appropriate for the nature of the asset and, for customer relationships, the underlying relationships, as summarized below:

- Trademark: valued using the multi-period excess earnings method (“MPEEM”), an income approach with significant assumptions used in the valuation including projected revenue, margins, contributory asset charges, long-term growth rate, and discount rate.
- Customer relationships (direct-to-consumer): valued using a replacement cost method, with significant assumptions used in the valuation included historical marketing spend, estimated time to rebuild customer relationships, developer profit margin, and discount rate.
- Customer relationships (wholesale): valued using a distributor method, which is an income-based approach with significant assumptions used in the valuation included projected revenues and margins, contributory asset charges, customer attrition, and discount rate.
- Customer relationships (concessions): valued using a with-and-without method, which is an income-based approach with significant assumptions used in the valuation including projected revenues and margins, probability of customer retention, and discount rate.

The fair values for inventories, property and equipment, operating lease right-of-use asset and intangibles were based on significant inputs that are not observable in the market and thus represent a Level 3 measurement in the fair value hierarchy.

Goodwill

In connection with the Kurt Geiger acquisition, the Company recognized $64,538 of goodwill, which represents the excess of the purchase price over the fair values of the net assets acquired and liabilities assumed. Goodwill recognized as part of the acquisition is primarily attributable to expected synergies, the assembled workforce, the expansion of the Company’s international footprint, and opportunities to grow complementary product categories. The goodwill arising from this acquisition is not expected to be deductible for income tax purposes. The goodwill has been allocated to the Company’s Wholesale Footwear, Wholesale Accessories/Apparel, and Direct-to-Consumer reporting units and may be adjusted in the event of any adjustments within the measurement period.

Transactions Related to the Business Combination

In accordance with ASC 805, the following transactions were identified in connection with the acquisition of Kurt Geiger.

- Acquisition-Related Costs: Acquisition-related costs were expensed as incurred. During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company recognized $10,726 of such costs, which were related to financial advisory, legal, accounting and other professional fees and were included within operating expenses in the Company’s Consolidated Statements of Operations.
- Debt Issuance Costs: As part of the debt financing in connection with the acquisition, the Company incurred $8,954 of debt issuance costs, which were capitalized in accordance with ASC Topic 470, Debt (“ASC 470”). See Note 16 – Credit Agreement for more information.

STEVEN MADDEN, LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

- Acquisition-Related Proceeds to Certain Sellers: In connection with the acquisition, the Company paid approximately $38,819 to management sellers and other key employees of the Company. These amounts were determined by the institutional sellers and represented a reallocation of proceeds from institutional sellers to management sellers in excess of their respective pre-acquisition equity ownership. While required to be accounted for as compensation under U.S. GAAP, these amounts do not represent additional cash paid at closing, but rather a recharacterization of a portion of the total proceeds. The Company determined that these payments represent compensation in accordance with ASC Topic 710, Compensation – General (“ASC 710”), rather than purchase consideration. Given the absence of any future service or performance conditions, the Company recognized the full amount within operating expenses in the Company’s Consolidated Statements of Operations during 2025.
- Deferred Acquisition-Related Proceeds to Certain Sellers: As part of the acquisition, certain management sellers deferred a portion of their proceeds for their equity interests. These deferred payments represent contingent consideration under ASC 805, as payment is contingent upon the achievement of specified EBITA targets in each of the five years following the acquisition. The Company recognized a liability of $12,895 related to the estimated fair value of the contingent consideration as of Acquisition Date. In accordance with ASC 805, the liability has been remeasured each reporting period. As of December 31, 2025, the Company recognized a liability of $11,600, which is included within contingent payment liability - long-term portion on the Company’s Consolidated Balance Sheets. During the year ended December 31, 2025, the change in fair value of the contingent consideration was $(1,295), which is included within change in valuation of contingent payment liability in the Company’s Consolidated Statements of Operations. The maximum consideration which can be paid over the consideration period of five years is approximately $16,600 and there are no minimum payments required. See Note 5 – Fair Value Measurements for more information.
- Transaction Incentive Plan: In connection with the acquisition, the Company implemented a Transaction Incentive Plan (“TIP”) to secure management sellers’ commitment to closing the transaction, encourage the retention of management sellers and other key employees, and incentivize long-term operating performance. Institutional sellers do not participate in the TIP. Under the TIP, each participant was issued six classes of shares (which we refer to as "Growth Shares") in SML UK Holding Ltd, with each class subject to a graded vesting schedule based on the achievement of specified EBITA performance targets over five separate annual measurement periods beginning July 1, 2025 and a cumulative measurement period from July 1, 2025 to June 30, 2030, with certain conditions tied to continued employment through the applicable vesting dates. Any payouts based on the satisfaction of the performance and service conditions will be made following the end of each applicable annual performance period, subject to a review and approval process in accordance with the terms of the TIP. Given the exclusion of institutional sellers from participation and the presence of certain service conditions, the Company determined that the TIP represents compensation for post-combination services, rather than deferred purchase consideration. See Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Note 8 – Share-Based Compensation for further information.

Pro Forma Financial Information

The following unaudited pro forma financial information for the year ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 combines the historical results of Steven Madden, Ltd. and Mercury Acquisitions Topco Limited, assuming that the companies were combined as of January 1, 2024. The pro forma financial information includes various adjustments to reflect business combination accounting effects, including depreciation and amortization charges from acquired tangible and intangible assets, interest expense from the debt financing related to funding the acquisition, acquisition-related transaction costs, acquisition-related compensation costs, and tax-related effects. The pro forma financial information, as presented below, is for informational purposes only and is not indicative of the results of operations that would have been achieved if the acquisition had taken place on January 1, 2024, nor are they indicative of future operating results.

	Years Ended December 31,
	2025	2024
Total revenue	$ 2,685,441	$ 2,803,286
Net income ⁽¹⁾	$ 122,116	$ 126,547

⁽¹⁾ Supplemental pro forma earnings for the year ended December 31, 2025 were adjusted to exclude non-recurring expenses incurred in 2025, including $38,819 of acquisition-related compensation cost, $10,726 of transaction costs, and $23,233 of expense related to the fair value adjustment to acquisition-date inventory; as well as to exclude a gain of $7,058 related to the settlement of a foreign exchange forward contract entered into in connection with the acquisition of Kurt Geiger. Supplemental pro forma earnings for the year ended December 31, 2024 were adjusted to include these items.

STEVEN MADDEN, LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

ATM

In November 2024, the Company acquired the ATM Collection (“ATM”), an elevated basics apparel brand, for a total purchase price of $9,783. Since acquisition, the results of ATM have been included within the Wholesale Accessories/Apparel and Direct-to-Consumer segments.

Hosiery Business

In March 2024, Daniel M. Friedman & Associates, Inc. acquired the Steve Madden and Betsey Johnson hosiery division (“hosiery business”) of Gina Group LLC (“Gina”) for cash consideration of $4,259. The results of the hosiery business have been included in the consolidated financial statements since the date of acquisition within the Wholesale Accessories/Apparel segment.

Almost Famous

In October 2023, Daniel M. Friedman & Associates, Inc. acquired substantially all of the assets and certain liabilities of Turn On Products Inc. d/b/a Almost Famous for cash consideration of $73,228 and a future payment contingent on the Almost Famous business achieving certain earnings before interest and tax (“EBIT”) targets. The results of the business have been included in the consolidated financial statements since the date of acquisition within the Wholesale Accessories/Apparel segment.

Joint Ventures

Greater China Joint Venture

In August 2025, the Company, through its subsidiary, Madden Asia Holding Limited, entered into a joint venture agreement with Glamear Trading Limited, a leading distributor of luxury and retail goods in the Greater China region. The Company acquired a 50% controlling financial interest in the newly formed entity, MG Distribution Hong Kong Limited, through a capital contribution of $3,500. This joint venture was formed to expand the distribution of the Company’s products across China, Hong Kong, and Macau. The results of this joint venture are included within the Direct-to-Consumer segment.

Australia Joint Venture

In January 2025, the Company, through its subsidiary, Madden Asia Holding Limited, entered into a joint venture agreement with GFN Two Pty Ltd., a leading distributor of luxury and retail goods in Australia and New Zealand. The Company acquired a 50.1% controlling financial interest in the newly formed entity, SM Fashion Australia Pty Ltd., through a capital contribution of $1,899. The acquisition resulted in the recognition of goodwill of $1,393. This joint venture was formed to expand the distribution of the Company’s products across Australia and New Zealand through wholesale and direct-to-consumer channels. The results of this joint venture are included within the Wholesale Footwear, Wholesale Accessories/Apparel, and Direct-to-Consumer segments.

Malaysia Joint Venture

In January 2025, the Company, through its subsidiary, Madden Asia Holding Limited, entered into an agreement with Envico Enterprise Sdn. Bhd., a leading distributor of luxury and retail goods in Southeast Asia, to acquire an additional 2.0% equity interest in SM Distribution Malaysia Sdn. Bhd. for cash consideration of $5. This joint venture was originally formed in July 2022, at which time the Company held a 49.0% non-controlling interest. With the acquisition of the additional 2.0% interest, the Company now holds a 51.0% controlling financial interest and has consolidated the joint venture’s financial results beginning in the first quarter of 2025. The acquisition resulted in the recognition of goodwill of $1,829. This joint venture engages in the distribution of the Company's products across Malaysia through the direct-to-consumer channel. The results of this joint venture are included within the Direct-to-Consumer segment.

Note 5 – Fair Value Measurements

The Company follows ASC Topic 820, “Fair Value Measurement” (“ASC 820”), which establishes a framework for measuring fair value and requires disclosures about fair value measurements. ASC 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. It emphasizes that fair value should reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. ASC 820 also establishes a three-tier fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used in valuation methodologies. A brief description of the fair value hierarchy is as follows:

- Level 1: Observable inputs such as quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs; inputs to the valuation methodology based on unobservable prices or valuation techniques that are significant to the fair value measurement.

The Company’s financial assets and liabilities subject to fair value measurements as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 were as follows:

(in thousands)	December 31, 2025				December 31, 2024
	Fair value	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Fair value	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Assets:
Forward contracts	$ 302	$ —	$ 302	$ —	$ 2,175	$ —	$ 2,175	$ —
Total assets	$ 302	$ —	$ 302	$ —	$ 2,175	$ —	$ 2,175	$ —
Liabilities:
Contingent payment liability ⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾	$ 14,880	$ —	$ —	$ 14,880	$ 7,565	$ —	$ —	$ 7,565

Total liabilities	$ 17,208	$ —	$ 2,328	$ 14,880	$ 8,381	$ —	$ 816	$ 7,565

⁽¹⁾ As of December 31, 2025, $14,880 was recorded in Contingent payment liability - long-term portion.

⁽²⁾ As of December 31, 2024, $7,565 was recorded in Contingent payment liability - long-term portion.

The Company uses derivative instruments, specifically, forward foreign exchange contracts, to manage the risk associated with the volatility of future cash flows. Fair value of these instruments is based on observable market transactions of spot and forward rates. Refer to Note 12 – Derivative Instruments for further information.

The following table provides a reconciliation of the beginning and ending balances for the contingent payment liabilities included within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024:

	December 31, 2025	December 31, 2024
Balance at beginning of year	$ 7,565	$ 13,300
Adjustments ⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾	(5,580)	2,722
Acquisitions	12,895	90
Payments ⁽³⁾	—	(8,547)
Balance at end of period	$ 14,880	$ 7,565

⁽¹⁾ In the 2025 period, amounts consisted of adjustments of $5,580 which were related to the change in valuation of the contingent payment liabilities in connection with the acquisitions of Kurt Geiger, Almost Famous, and ATM. The adjustments to Kurt Geiger were recorded in income from operations in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and allocated to the Wholesale Footwear, Wholesale Accessories/Apparel, and Direct-to-Consumer segments. Adjustments to Almost Famous and ATM were recorded in income from operations in the Consolidated Statements of Operations for the Wholesale Accessories/Apparel segment.

⁽²⁾ In the 2024 period, amounts consisted of adjustments of $2,722, which were related to the change in valuation of the contingent payment liabilities in connection with the acquisitions of Almost Famous and ATM. These adjustments were recorded in income from operations in the Consolidated Statements of Operations for the Wholesale Accessories/Apparel segment.

⁽³⁾ For the 2024 period, the payment of $8,547 was related to the contingent payment liability in connection with the acquisition of Almost Famous and was measured based upon actual EBIT performance for the related performance period. The payment was included as cash used in financing activities in the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for the year ended December 31, 2024.

STEVEN MADDEN, LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the fair value of the contingent payment liability related to the acquisition of Almost Famous $3,225 and $7,475, respectively. The fair value was determined using a Monte Carlo simulation model, which estimates the probability of various financial outcomes during the measurement period. The model utilized discount rates of 16.0% and 17.5% as of December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the fair value of the contingent payment liability related to the acquisition of ATM was $55 and $90 respectively. The fair value was determined using a Monte Carlo simulation model, utilizing a discount rate of 11.4% and 12.6%.

As of December 31, 2025, the fair value of the contingent payment liability related to the acquisition of Mercury Acquisitions Topco Limited was $11,600. The fair value was based on a probability-weighted expected return method that considers the expected future payments. See Note 4 – Acquisitions, Purchases and Sales of Joint Ventures, and Divestitures for further information.

The fair values of reporting units tested for goodwill and other intangibles are measured on a non-recurring basis and are determined using Level 3 inputs, including forecasted cash flows, discount rates, and implied royalty rates. Refer to Note 4 – Acquisitions, Purchases and Sales of Joint Ventures, and Divestitures and Note 7 – Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets for further information.

The fair values of lease right-of-use assets and fixed assets related to company-owned retail stores are measured on a non-recurring basis and are determined using Level 3 inputs, including estimated discounted future cash flows associated with the assets using sales trends, market rents, and market participant assumptions. Refer to Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies for further information.

The carrying value of certain financial instruments such as cash equivalents, short-term investments, accounts receivable, factor accounts receivable, and accounts payable approximates their fair values due to the short-term nature of their underlying terms. Fair value of the notes receivable held by the Company approximates their carrying value based upon their imputed or actual interest rate, which approximates applicable current market interest rates. Some assets are not measured at fair value on an ongoing basis but are subject to fair value adjustments only in certain circumstances (non-recurring). These assets can include long-lived assets that have been reduced to fair value when impaired. Assets that are written down to fair value when impaired are not subsequently adjusted to fair value unless further impairment occurs.

The carrying amount of the term loan facility, which bears interest at a variable rate, approximates fair value as the interest rate adjusts with changes in market conditions. The estimated fair value of the term loan was determined using Level 2 inputs based on current market interest rates and credit spreads for instruments with similar terms and maturities. Refer to Note 16 – Credit Agreement for further information.

Fair value measurements associated with assets acquired and liabilities assumed in business combinations are disclosed separately in Note 4 – Acquisitions, Purchases and Sales of Joint Ventures, and Divestitures. These measurements primarily utilize Level 3 inputs due to the use of significant unobservable assumptions, as described therein.

Evaluation of Impairment

The Company evaluates goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets for impairment at least annually, as of the beginning of the third quarter, and whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit or indefinite-lived intangible asset is less than its carrying amount. The Company generally performs a qualitative assessment in evaluating impairment, although it may elect to perform a quantitative impairment test if deemed necessary.

Quantitative impairment tests of goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets were performed as of July 1, 2025. The Company estimated the fair values of its reporting units using the discounted cash flow method, an income approach, which incorporates significant assumptions including projected revenues, margins, and discount rates. The fair values of indefinite-lived intangible assets were estimated using the multi-period excess earnings method, an income approach. Significant assumptions used in the valuations included projected revenues, margins, contributory asset charges, long-term growth rates, and discount rates. Based on the results of the quantitative tests performed, the Company concluded that the fair values of its reporting units and indefinite-lived intangible assets exceeded their respective carrying amounts. Accordingly, no impairment charges were recognized. The Company's estimates of fair value are sensitive to changes in key assumptions, including discount rates and projected financial results. Although management believes the assumptions used were reasonable, changes in these assumptions or in underlying market conditions could result in different fair value measurements in future periods.

STEVEN MADDEN, LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Qualitative impairment assessments were performed as of July 1, 2024, which indicated that it was more likely than not that the fair values of the Company's reporting units and indefinite-lived intangible assets exceeded their respective carrying amounts.

In fiscals 2025, 2024, and 2023, no impairment charges were recognized for goodwill or indefinite-lived intangible assets in connection with the annual impairment evaluations. Impairment charges recognized during these periods were associated with specific events and circumstances and are described separately below.

During the fourth quarter of 2025, the Company recognized a $6,300 non-cash impairment charge related to an indefinite-lived trademark intangible asset. The impairment charge was driven by updated financial projections reflecting reduced revenue and earnings expectations for the associated brand. The impairment charge was included within impairment of intangibles in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2025 and recognized in the Wholesale Accessories/Apparel segment.

During 2024 and 2023, the Company recognized non-cash impairment charges totaling $8,220 related to the GREATS® trademark. These impairments were driven by changes in expectations regarding the brand's performance, including revisions to projected financial results and a reassessment of the trademark's useful life. These impairment charges were recorded within impairment of intangibles in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2024 and recognized in the Direct-to-Consumer segment.

During 2024, the Company recognized a non-cash impairment charge of $8,635 related to the Almost Famous trademark intangible asset. The impairment resulted from the Company's decision to discontinue use of the brand and transition its marketing and sales efforts to another brand. The impairment charge was included within impairment of intangibles in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2024 and recognized in the Wholesale Accessories/Apparel segment.

Amortization

The amortization of intangible assets amounted to $5,900, $4,413, and $2,082 for 2025, 2024, and 2023 and is included in operating expenses in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations. The estimated future amortization expense for intangibles as of December 31, 2025 was as follows:

(in thousands)

2026	$	5,789
2028		5,499

The Company uses the Black-Scholes-Merton option-pricing model to estimate the fair value of options granted, which requires several assumptions. The expected term of the options represents the estimated period of time until exercise and is based on the historical experience of similar awards. Expected volatility is based on the historical volatility of the Company's common stock. The risk-free interest rate is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of the grant. The dividend yield is based on the Company's annualized dividend per share amount divided by the Company's stock price. New shares are issued upon option exercise.

The following weighted average assumptions were used for stock options granted during 2025, 2024, and 2023:

	Years Ended December 31,

Performance-Based Awards

The Company issues performance-based awards to certain employees, the vesting of which is subject to the employee's continuing employment and the Company's achievement of certain performance goals. In the first quarters of 2025 and 2024, the Company issued 150 and 86 performance shares (at target), with a weighted average grant date fair value of $26.05 and $41.63, that are eligible to be earned over a three-year performance period from January 1, 2025 through December 31, 2027 and January 1, 2024 through December 31, 2026, respectively. During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company estimated that the probable outcome of the performance conditions, based on performance through such date, was that the performance shares will be earned at 185% of the target level. The corresponding expense for the year ended December 31, 2025 is reflected in stock-based compensation under performance-based awards.

As of December 31, 2025, $7,130 of total unrecognized compensation cost related to non-vested share awards is expected to be recognized using the accelerated attribution method over a weighted-average period of 1.7 years.

In the year ended December 31, 2023, 12 performance shares vested at a weighted average exercise price of $42.00. No shares vested in the periods ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Transaction Incentive Plan ("TIP") Award

In connection with the Kurt Geiger acquisition, the Company implemented a Transaction Incentive Plan ("TIP") under which each participant was issued six classes of "Growth Shares" in SML UK Holding Ltd. Each class is subject to a graded vesting schedule based on the achievement of specified EBITA performance targets over five separate annual measurement periods beginning July 1, 2025, or a cumulative measurement period from July 1, 2025 to June 30, 2030, as well as certain conditions of continued employment through the applicable vesting dates. Upon achievement, the Growth Shares will be settled in cash, and thus, are liability-classified and will be remeasured at fair value at each reporting date until settlement.

The total grant-date fair value of each class of Growth Shares of $10,590 was determined using a Monte Carlo simulation model, which incorporates assumptions regarding the Company's forecasted financial performance, risk-free interest rates, expected volatility, and other relevant market inputs. The Company recognizes compensation expense for Growth Shares if and when the Company concludes that it is probable that the performance condition will be achieved.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, no compensation expense was recognized.

Note 9 – Preferred Stock

The Company has authorized 5,000 shares of preferred stock. The Board of Directors has designated 60 shares of such preferred stock as Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock ("Series A Preferred"). Holders of the shares of Series A Preferred are entitled to dividends equal to 1 times dividends declared or paid on the Company's common stock. Each share of Series A Preferred entitles the holder to 1 vote on all matters submitted to the holders of common stock. The Series A Preferred has a liquidation preference of $1 per share and is not redeemable by the Company. No shares of preferred stock have been issued.

Note 10 – Share Repurchase Program

The Company's Board of Directors authorized a share repurchase program (the "Share Repurchase Program"), effective as of January 1, 2004. The Share Repurchase Program does not have a fixed expiration or termination date and may be modified or terminated by the Board of Directors at any time. On several occasions the Board of Directors has increased the amount authorized for repurchase of the Company's common stock. On May 8, 2023, the Board of Directors approved an increase in the Company's share repurchase authorization of approximately $189,900, bringing the total authorization to $250,000. The Share Repurchase Program permits the Company to effect repurchases from time to time through a combination of open market repurchases or as part of privately negotiated transactions at such prices and times that are determined to be in the best interest of the Company. During the year ended December 31, 2025, no shares of the Company's common stock were repurchased under the Share Repurchase Program. During the year ended December 31, 2024, 2,090 shares, excluding net settlements of employee stock awards, were repurchased under the Share Repurchase Program, at a weighted average price per share of $43.15, for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $90,153. As of December 31, 2025, approximately $85,310 remained available for future repurchases under the Share Repurchase Program.

The Steven Madden, Ltd. Amended and Restated 2006 Stock Incentive Plan (as further amended, the "2006 Plan"), which expired on April 6, 2019, and the Steven Madden, Ltd. 2019 Incentive Compensation Plan, as amended (the "2019 Plan"), both provide the Company with the right to deduct or withhold, or require employees to remit to the Company, an amount sufficient to satisfy any applicable tax withholding and/or option cost obligations applicable to stock-based compensation awards. To the extent permitted, employees may elect to satisfy all or part of such withholding obligations by tendering to the Company previously owned shares or by having the Company withhold shares having a fair market value equal to the employee's withholding tax obligation and/or option cost. During the year ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, an aggregate of 576 and 211 shares, respectively, were withheld in connection with the settlement of vested restricted stock to satisfy tax-withholding requirements and option costs, at an average price per share of $40.03 and $42.84, respectively, for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $23,081 and $9,058, respectively.

Note 11 – Net Income Per Share of Common Stock

Basic net income per share is based on the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period, which does not include unvested restricted common stock subject to forfeiture of 1,652, 1,543, and 1,290 shares for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively. Diluted net income per share reflects: (a) the potential dilution assuming shares of common stock were issued upon the exercise of outstanding in-the-money options and the assumed proceeds, which are deemed to be the proceeds from the exercise plus compensation cost not yet recognized attributable to future services using the treasury method, were used to purchase shares of the Company's common stock at the average market price during the period; (b) the vesting of granted non-vested restricted stock awards for which the assumed proceeds upon vesting are deemed to be the amount of compensation cost not yet recognized attributable to future services using the treasury stock method, to the extent dilutive; and (c) issued performance-based awards to the extent that the underlying performance conditions (i) have been satisfied as of the end of the reporting period or (ii) would be considered satisfied if the end of the reporting period were the end of the related contingency period and the result would be dilutive.

Diluted	71,181	71,963	74,565

For the year ended December 31, 2025, there were no options to purchase shares of common stock excluded from the calculation of diluted net income per share. For the year ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, options to purchase approximately 24 and 10 shares of common stock in each period have been excluded from the calculation of diluted net income per share, as the result would have been anti-dilutive. For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, 124, 5, and 39, shares of common stock have been excluded from the calculation of diluted net income per share as the result would have been anti-dilutive.

The Company had certain contingently issuable performance-based awards outstanding that did not meet the performance conditions for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 and, therefore, were excluded from the calculation of diluted net income per common share for those years. The number of potentially dilutive shares that could be issued upon vesting for these performance-based awards was immaterial as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023. These amounts were also excluded from the computation of weighted average potentially dilutive securities.

Note 12 – Derivative Instruments

The Company uses derivative instruments, specifically, forward foreign exchange contracts, to manage the risk associated with the volatility of future cash flows. The forward foreign exchange contracts are used to mitigate the impact of exchange rate fluctuations on certain forecasted inventory purchases and are designated as cash flow hedges.

The notional amounts of the Company's outstanding derivative instruments as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 were as follows:

As of December 31, 2025, the current maturity dates of the Company's derivative instruments range from January 2026 to December 2026.

For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company's hedging activities were deemed effective, with no ineffectiveness recognized in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Gains and losses from these hedging activities are recorded in cost of sales in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

During 2025, the Company settled certain foreign exchange forward contracts that were entered into to hedge foreign exchange rate risk surrounding a portion of the purchase price in connection with the Kurt Geiger acquisition. The settlement resulted in a gain of $9,252, which was recorded as gain on derivative in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2025.

The changes between the Company's effective tax rate for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 were primarily due to non-deductible expenses related to the acquisition of the Kurt Geiger business. The changes between the Company's effective tax rate for the years ended December 31, 2024, and 2023, were due to lower tax benefits related to equity-based awards and in pre-tax income in jurisdictions with higher tax rates.

The Company's effective tax rate includes the effects of state and local income taxes, net of the federal income tax benefit, which are primarily attributable to California and New York, where the Company has significant business activities. These states have higher effective tax rates compared to other jurisdictions where the Company operates, and together, they account for more than half of the Company's total state tax expense.

The Company applies the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on differences between financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and are measured using the enacted tax rates and laws that are expected to be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse.

The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities (including the impact of available carryback and carryforward periods), projected future taxable income, and tax-planning strategies in making this assessment.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Company's increase in valuation allowance of $408 is due to an increase of net operating loss deferred tax assets in various foreign subsidiaries, which resulted in an aggregate valuation allowance of $3,459 for the year ended December 31, 2025.

A reconciliation of the beginning and ending amount of unrecognized tax benefits were as follows:

(in thousands)	Years Ended December 31,
	2025	2024	2023
Beginning Balance	$ —	$ 238	$ 1,145
Additions for tax positions of prior years	761	—	—
Reductions for tax positions of prior years	—	(238)	(907)
Ending Balance	$ 761	$ —	$ 238

For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2023 the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits that, if recognized, would affect the effective tax rate is approximately $761 and $238, in the aggregate, respectively. There were no unrecognized tax benefits that, if recognized, would affect the tax rate in 2024. The Company recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain income tax positions in income tax expense. Accrued interest and penalties on unrecognized tax benefits and interest and penalty expense are immaterial to the consolidated financial statements for all periods presented. It is reasonably possible that the unrecognized tax benefits will decrease in the next twelve months.

The Company's consolidated financial statements provide for any related tax liability on amounts that may be repatriated from foreign operations, aside from undistributed earnings of certain of the Company's foreign subsidiaries that are intended to be indefinitely reinvested in operations outside the U.S. The deferred tax liability of $3,208 as of December 31, 2025 reflects the withholding tax on amounts that may be repatriated from foreign operations.

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. for federal, state, and local purposes, and in certain foreign jurisdictions. The Company's tax years for 2022 through 2024 remain open to examination by most taxing authorities.

On August 16, 2022, the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022 ("IRA") was signed into law, which contains certain revisions to the Internal Revenue Code, including a 15% corporate minimum income tax for tax years beginning after December 31, 2022. While the 15% corporate minimum income tax has no effect on the Company's results of operations in the near term, the Company will continue to evaluate its impact on future years. The IRA also assesses a 1% excise tax on repurchases of corporate stock which impacts the Company's stock repurchases effective January 1, 2023. The excise tax recorded as an incremental cost in treasury stock on the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets was $0 and $752 for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

The Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development ("OECD") has implemented the global minimum tax rate of at least 15% for large multinational companies as of 2024 ("Pillar Two"). Under Pillar Two, a top-up tax will be required for any jurisdiction that has enacted Pillar Two and whose effective tax rate falls below the 15% global minimum rate. Additionally, the OECD issued administrative guidance providing transition and safe harbor rules around the implementation of the global minimum tax under Pillar Two. Under the safe harbor, companies would be excluded from Pillar Two requirements provided certain criteria are met. Based on the Company's analysis, the enactment of Pillar Two legislation does not have a material effect on the Company's financial position. The Company will continue to monitor and reflect the impact of such legislative changes in future periods, as appropriate.

On July 4, 2025, the One Big Beautiful Bill Act (the "OBBBA") was signed into law, which includes a broad range of tax reform provisions as well as the extension of certain Tax Cuts and Job Act provisions that were set to expire. We have accounted for the OBBBA tax law changes, which did not have a material impact on our effective tax rate in 2025.

Legal Proceedings

The Company is involved in various legal matters in the ordinary course of business, including contractual disputes, employment-related matters, distribution issues, product liability claims, intellectual property infringement, and other matters. After consulting with legal counsel, management believes that any potential liabilities arising from these matters are not expected to have a material effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations. In accordance with company policy, management will disclose the amount or range of reasonably possible losses that exceed recorded amounts or expected cash flows.

Letters of Credit

As of December 31, 2025, the Company had $503 in letters of credit outstanding unrelated to the Company's Credit Agreement.

Employee Agreements

The Company has employment agreements with certain executives in the normal course of business which provide compensation and certain other benefits. These agreements also provide for severance payments under certain circumstances.

License Agreements

In January 2018, the Company entered into a license agreement with Nine West Development LLC, subsequently acquired by WHP Global, for the right to manufacture, market, and sell women's fashion footwear and handbags under the Anne Klein[®], AK Sport[®], AK Anne Klein Sport[®], and the Lion Head Design[®] trademarks. The agreement requires that the Company pay the licensor a royalty equal to a percentage of net revenues and a minimum royalty in the event that specified net sales targets are not achieved. The license agreement will expire on December 31, 2026 and has various terms and renewal options, provided that minimum sales levels, and certain other conditions are achieved.

Future minimum royalty and advertising payments under all of the Company's license agreements are $6,000 for 2026. Royalty expenses are recognized in cost of sales in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Other Commitments

Other off-balance sheet commitments amounted to $387,158 as of December 31, 2025, including inventory purchase commitments of $334,641, and employment commitments of $52,517.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to significant concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivables from trade customers.

The Company maintains cash and cash equivalents with various major financial institutions. Cash balances may at times exceed federally insured limits. The Company monitors the creditworthiness of these institutions and has not experienced any losses related to such balances.

The Company sells its wholesale merchandise primarily to major department stores, specialty stores, and e-commerce platforms, and extends credit based on an evaluation of each customer's financial capacity and condition. Credit risk with respect to accounts receivables is mitigated through factoring arrangements with third-party financial institutions that generally assume credit risk of credit-approved receivables, subject to the terms of the respective agreements. While these arrangements reduce exposure to credit losses, the Company may retain certain risks, including those related to receivable eligibility.

As of December 31, 2025, approximately 29.5% of the Company's total accounts receivable balance was attributable to two customers. As of December 31, 2024, approximately 53.0% of the Company's total accounts receivable balance was attributable to three customers. As of December 31, 2023, approximately 41.2% of the Company's total accounts receivable balance was attributable to three customers. See Note 17 – Factoring Agreements for further information.

Sales with Major Customers

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company had no customer who accounted for more than 10% of total revenue. For the year ended December 31, 2024, the Company had one customer who accounted for 11.8% of total revenue. For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company did not have any customers who accounted for more than 10% of total revenue. Revenues attributable to these customers were reported within the Wholesale Footwear and Wholesale Accessories/Apparel segments.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Supplier Concentration

The Company sources its products primarily through arrangements with independent third-party manufacturers. During the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the Company did not have any significant purchase concentrations with any individual supplier.

A substantial portion of the Company's product purchases is sourced from vendors located in Asia. Total product purchases from vendors located in China for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, were 56.1%, 76.6%, and 78.7%, respectively. Total product purchases from vendors located in Cambodia for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, were 24.6%, 13.8%, and 9.9%, respectively.

The Company's sourcing activities are subject to risks associated with international trade, including changes in tariffs, trade policies, and regional economic conditions. Management monitors its supplier and geographic exposures and periodically evaluates opportunities to diversify sourcing. For further discussion of related risks, see Item 1A. "Risk Factors."

Note 16 – Credit Agreement

On May 6, 2025, the Company entered into an Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the "Credit Agreement") with various lenders and Citizens Bank, as administrative agent (in such capacity, the "Agent"), which provides for a term loan facility in the amount of $300,000 and a revolving credit facility with a total capacity of $250,000. The Credit Agreement amends and restates in its entirety the previous credit agreement, dated as of July 22, 2020, among the Company, the various lenders party thereto and Citizens Bank, as administrative agent.

The Credit Agreement provides for a term loan facility and a revolving credit facility scheduled to mature on May 6, 2030. The Company may from time to time increase the revolving commitments and/or request incremental term loans in an aggregate principal amount of up to $275,000 if certain conditions are satisfied, including (i) the absence of any default under the Credit Agreement, and (ii) the Company obtaining the consent of the lenders participating in each such increase.

Borrowings in U.S. Dollars under the Credit Agreement generally bear interest at a variable rate equal to, at the Company's election, (i) Term SOFR for the applicable interest period plus a specified margin, which is based upon the Company's Total Net Leverage Ratio (as defined in the Credit Agreement) or (ii) the base rate (which is the highest of (a) the prime rate announced by Citizens Bank or its parent company, (b) the sum of the federal funds rate plus 0.50%, or (c) the sum of the Daily SOFR Rate plus 1%) plus a specified margin, which is based upon the Company's Total Net Leverage Ratio. At the Company's option, borrowings under the Credit Agreement can be made in Euros, Pounds Sterling and other freely available currency or currencies (other than U.S. Dollars) from time to time approved by the Agent and the lenders in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement, and such borrowings would bear interest at a variable rate equal to, at the Company's election, (i) the Alternative Currency Daily Rate (as defined in the Credit Agreement) plus a specified margin, which is based upon the Company's Total Net Leverage Ratio or (ii) the Alternative Currency Term Rate (as defined in the Credit Agreement) plus a specified margin, which is based upon the Company's Total Net Leverage Ratio.

Under the Credit Agreement, the Company must also pay (i) a commitment fee to the Agent, for the account of each revolving lender, which shall accrue at a rate per annum ranging from 0.25% to 0.35% of the average daily unused portion of the revolving credit facility, depending on the Company's Total Net Leverage Ratio, (ii) a letter of credit participation fee to the Agent, for the account of each revolving lender, ranging from 1.75% to 2.50% per annum, based upon the Company's Total Net Leverage Ratio, multiplied by the average daily amount available to be drawn under the applicable letter of credit, and (iii) a letter of credit fronting fee to each issuer of a letter of credit under the Credit Agreement, which shall accrue at a rate of 0.125% per annum.

The Credit Agreement contains various restrictions and covenants applicable to the Company and its subsidiaries, including the requirements that the borrowers not permit (i) the Total Net Leverage Ratio as of the end of any fiscal quarter to be greater than 3.00 to 1.00 and (ii) the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio (as defined in the Credit Agreement) as of the end of any fiscal quarter to be less than 1.25 to 1.00. As of December 31, 2025, all financial covenants associated with the Credit Agreement were within the prescribed thresholds.

The Credit Agreement requires various subsidiaries of the Company to guarantee obligations arising from time to time under the Credit Agreement, as well as obligations arising in respect of certain cash management and hedging transactions. Subject to customary exceptions and limitations, all of the borrowings under the Credit Agreement are secured by a lien on all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and each subsidiary guarantor. Certain additional subsidiaries of the Company may from time to time become borrowers or guarantors pursuant to the Credit Agreement.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Credit Agreement also contains customary events of default. If an event of default under the Credit Agreement occurs and is continuing, then the Agent may, and at the request of the required lenders shall, terminate the loan commitments under the Credit Agreement, declare any outstanding obligations under the Credit Agreement to be immediately due and payable and/or require that the Company adequately cash collateralize outstanding letter of credit obligations. In addition, if, among other things, the Company or, with certain exceptions, a subsidiary thereof becomes the subject of voluntary or involuntary proceedings under any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law, then the loan commitments under the Credit Agreement will automatically terminate, any outstanding obligations under the Credit Agreement will automatically become immediately due and payable, and the cash collateral required under the Credit Agreement for any outstanding letter of credit obligations will automatically become immediately due and payable.

The Company used the term loan facility, and a portion of the revolving credit facility, to fund the transaction and the transaction-related expenses. The Company also has used, and intends to continue to use, the revolving credit facility for general corporate purposes.

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company incurred total debt issuance costs of $8,954 in connection with the Credit Agreement, including $6,716 allocated to the term loan facility and $2,238 allocated to the revolving credit facility. Debt issuance costs associated with the term loan are presented as a direct reduction from the carrying amount of the related facility within long-term debt on the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets and are amortized to interest expense using the effective interest method. Debt issuance costs associated with the revolving credit facility are presented within deposits and other on the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets and are amortized to interest expense on straight-line basis over the five-year term of the facility. The remaining unamortized debt issuance costs under each facility on the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets are summarized in the tables below. During the year ended December 31, 2025, $1,176 related to the amortization of debt issuance costs was included in interest expense in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations. As of December 31, 2025, the Company had $2,200 in letters of credit outstanding related to the Company's revolver.

Note 17 – Factoring Agreements

On July 22, 2020, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Madden Entities”) entered into an Amended and Restated Deferred Purchase Factoring Agreement (the “Rosenthal Factoring Agreement”) with Rosenthal & Rosenthal, Inc. (“Rosenthal”). Pursuant to the Rosenthal Factoring Agreement, Rosenthal serves as the collection agent with respect to certain receivables of the Madden Entities and is entitled to receive a base commission of the gross invoice amount of each receivable assigned for collection, plus certain additional fees and expenses, subject to certain minimum annual commissions. Rosenthal will generally assume the credit risk resulting from a customer’s financial inability to make payment of credit-approved receivables, which are classified as Factor Receivables. The initial term of the Rosenthal Factoring Agreement was twelve months, subject to automatic renewal for additional twelve-month periods, and the Rosenthal Factoring Agreement may be terminated at any time by Rosenthal or the Madden Entities on 60 days’ notice and upon the occurrence of certain other events. The Madden Entities have pledged all of their rights under the Rosenthal Factoring Agreement to the Agent under the Credit Agreement to secure obligations arising under the Credit Agreement.

On April 3, 2023, the Madden Entities entered into a Credit Approved Receivables Purchasing Agreement (the “CIT Factoring Agreement”) with CIT Group/Commercial Services, Inc. (“CIT”). Pursuant to the CIT Factoring Agreement, in addition to Rosenthal, CIT serves as a non-exclusive collection agent with respect to certain of the Madden Entities’ receivables and will generally assume the credit risk resulting from a customer’s financial inability to make payment with respect to credit approved receivables. Additionally, CIT shall compensate the Madden Entities for 50% of the losses sustained for limiting or revoking a credit line during production for any made-to-order goods that have work-in-progress coverage. For its services, CIT is entitled to receive (1) a base fee of the gross face amount of each receivable assigned for collection having standard payment terms, (2) certain additional fees for receivables with non-standard payment terms or arising from sales to customers outside of the United States, and (3) reimbursement for certain expenses incurred in connection with the CIT Factoring Agreement. The Company, on behalf of the Madden Entities, and CIT may each terminate the CIT Factoring Agreement at any time by giving the other party at least 60 days’ notice. CIT may also terminate the CIT Factoring Agreement immediately upon the occurrence of certain events. The Madden Entities have pledged all of their right, title, and interest in and to monies due and to become due under the CIT Factoring Agreement in favor of the Agent to secure obligations arising under or in connection with the Credit Agreement.

On October 23, 2023, the Company and Daniel M. Friedman & Associates, Inc. (“DMFA”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a Notification Factoring Rider to the Credit Approved Receivables Purchasing Agreement (“Notification Factoring Rider”) with CIT, which amended and supplemented the CIT Factoring Agreement. The Notification Factoring Rider enables certain receivables generated from assets acquired by DMFA from Turn On Products Inc. d/b/a Almost Famous (“Post-Acquisition Receivables”), which assets were acquired by DMFA on October 20, 2023, to be subject to the CIT Factoring Agreement.

The Notification Factoring Rider modified the CIT Factoring Agreement to require, in respect of certain Post-Acquisition Receivables, payment to CIT of a base fee of the gross face amount of such Post-Acquisition Receivables assigned to CIT for collection. CIT will generally assume the credit risk resulting from a customer’s financial inability to make payment with respect to certain credit approved Post-Acquisition Receivables. The Company or DMFA may terminate the Notification Factoring Rider, separately from the CIT Factoring Agreement, by giving CIT at least 10 days’ prior written notice of termination. As with monies due and to become due under the CIT Factoring Agreement generally, monies due and to become due to the Company and DMFA under the Notification Factoring Rider are pledged in favor of the Agent to secure obligations under or in connection with the Credit Agreement.

Note 18 – Operating Segment Information

The Company has determined its reportable operating segments based on the internal management structure used by the Company’s Chief Operating Decision Maker (or “CODM”), who is its Chief Executive Officer, to evaluate performance and allocate resources. This structure organizes the business into distinct categories based on product types and sales channels. The Company’s reportable operating segments consist of the following:

- Wholesale Footwear. This segment designs, sources, and markets our brands and sells our products, consisting of footwear, to department stores, mass merchants, off-price retailers, shoe chains, online retailers, national chains, specialty retailers, independent stores, and clubs throughout the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, Mexico, and through our joint ventures and international distributor network.
- Wholesale Accessories/Apparel. This segment designs, sources, and markets our brands and sells our products, primarily consisting of handbags and apparel, to department stores, mass merchants, off-price retailers, online retailers, specialty retailers, independent stores, and clubs throughout the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, Mexico, and through our joint ventures and international distributor network.
- Direct-to-Consumer. This segment engages in the sale of footwear, handbags, apparel, and other accessories through Steve Madden, Kurt Geiger London, Dolce Vita, and Carvela full-price retail stores, Steve Madden, Kurt Geiger London, and Carvela outlet stores, directly-operated e-commerce platforms, directly-operated concessions in international markets, and also operates third-party concessions in luxury and premium department stores primarily in the UK. We operate retail locations in regional malls and shopping centers, as well as high streets in various cities across the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Canada, and Mexico, as well as through our joint ventures in international markets.
- Licensing. This segment engages in the licensing of the Steve Madden®, Betsey Johnson® and Kurt Geiger® trademarks for use in the sale of select apparel, accessories, and home categories as well as various other non-core products.

In addition, the Company has certain corporate-related costs (“Corporate costs” or “Corporate”) that are not directly attributable to its reportable operating segments. Accordingly, these corporate-related costs do not constitute a reportable segment. These costs are primarily associated with corporate executives, corporate finance, corporate social responsibility, legal, human resources, information technology, cybersecurity, and other shared services.

The Company’s CODM evaluates financial performance based primarily on gross profit and income from operations for each reportable operating segment. Gross profit is defined as revenue less cost of goods sold. Income from operations is defined as profit or loss from operations before interest and other income, net and income taxes. Gross profit is a key measure for assessing the efficiency of the segment in producing its products or services, focusing on the direct costs associated with production. Income from operations is a key measure for understanding the overall financial performance of each segment, taking into account both direct operational costs and indirect expenses. These measures are used together to evaluate segment performance and determine the appropriate allocation of resources to each segment.

The Company’s CODM does not evaluate the financial performance of each segment based on its respective assets or capital expenditures, and therefore, the Company does not report this information.

Note 20 – Subsequent Events

On February 20, 2026, the U.S. Supreme Court struck down certain tariffs imposed under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (IEEPA). Following the Supreme Court decision, the U.S. Administration announced a new 10% global tariff under Section 122 of the Trade Act of 1974, subject to certain carveouts. It is unclear, as of the filing date, what impact these decisions will have on our future financial results, including whether we will be able to obtain refunds of amounts previously paid for the IEEPA tariffs or any fluctuations of the level of replacement tariffs imposed or the addition of any new tariffs through other means.
